ONTARIO FIGHTS NEW DISEASE MENACE

Trade Improvement Made Foundation of Baldwin's Campaign

Prime Minister, Addressing 2,000 of His Followers in London, Says Conservatives, if Returned to Power, Will Steadily Work for Development of Industries of Britain.

London, April 18.—Premier Baldwin launched the election campaign of the Conservative Party of Great Britain here to-day with an address before 2,000 representative Conservatives from all parts of the country in which he characterized the policy of his party as a steady-going forward one and promised its continuance and development.

"Ours is a policy of sobriety which you can see through," he said. "It is one of nursing our trade into better condition, of looking after the education and health of our people, and particularly of our women and children, a policy which goes into every home and every cottage throughout the country."

HIS PROMISE

"From end to end it is a policy you know will be carried out to the utmost of our ability, and I will promise nothing more. People who think pre-war electioneering is going to win a post-war election are making a mistake. Our people think. They want to learn, and above all, they want to do the right thing.

"I cannot stand up and I will not stand up before a people like that and go one iota beyond what I know I can perform if I have the opportunity. It is that deep sense of responsibility of our people which will make them deaf to appeals of cupidity on the one hand or appeals of credulity which will reach them on the other."

EMPLOYMENT QUESTION

The Prime Minister declared the Conservative Party had been pursuing for some years a consistent policy aimed at the development of the country's industries and the placing in them of men in permanent employment.

"We have not neglected any of these services that make for the happiness and welfare of our own people," said the Prime Minister and the assemblage stamped and cheered him. "You may judge us by what we have done. You

CONTRALTOS IN MUSIC FESTIVAL FINAL TO-NIGHT

Mrs. Georgina Watt and Miss Dorothy Hartree to Compete For Honors

High Praise For Voices Given By Adjudicator; Violin Classes To-morrow

That the contraltos who sang in this morning's session of the Victoria Musical Festival were of high order with no poor voices among them, was the praise of Dr. Daniel Protheroe, the adjudicator in this class.

"I must congratulate the entrants upon having such fine voices and for having such natural intuition of expression. Many sing with the head instead of the voice. The ladies I have heard this morning sang with both," said Dr. Protheroe.

FINE VOICES

Mrs. Georgina Watt and Dorothy Hartree will this evening compete in the final of the contralto class. This promises to be an exceptional event as both singers are among the city's finest contraltos, and on former occasions have taken high honors.

Results of this morning's adjudications were as follows:

First Baptist Church,—Dr. Daniel Protheroe adjudicating.

Class 15—Vocal solo, contralto, girls under 19 years, competing for silver medal given by Frederic King. Test piece, "When Roses Bloom" (Reichardt)—1, Ruth Penman, 84 marks; 2, Annabell F. Mackenzie (Vancouver), 82 marks; 3, Aline Fairweather, 78 marks.

MURDER HUNT LEADS TO RIVER BEING DRAGGED

Inquest on Death of T. Midgley at Kootenay Flats, B.C., Adjourned

Creston, B.C., April 18.—At the request of the police there is a pause till April 24 in the inquest on the body of Thomas Midgley, murdered at his ranch home on Kootenay Flats, seventeen miles northwest of here, presumably on the night of April 1.

A more careful search of the Midgley home had revealed the fact that the clothes left on the bed in which the man was shot were not the mattress and bedspreads on which he had reposed on the night of his death. A mattress and clothes from another bed had been substituted, it is alleged.

RIVER DRAGGED

Dragging operations are reported under way at the spot where the body was recovered from the river in the hope the mattress may be secured, with the possibility of the bullet that sent Mr. Midgley to his death being found.

Provincial Police Inspector Forbes Cruickshank of Vancouver has been given full charge of the case.

Adjournment till April 24 was made at yesterday's session of the inquest.

AFGHAN FORCES ARE BATTLING

Amanulla's Men Fighting New King's Troops Forty Miles From Kabul

Calcutta, India, April 18.—Reports from Kabul said severe fighting was going on at Shaikabad, forty miles from the Afghanistan capital. The forces engaged are those of the former King Amanulla, who is seeking to regain the throne which he gave up, and the army of Bacha Sacao, the "Water Boy of the North," who took the throne from Amanulla's brother. Casualties were said to be heavy, the hospitals at Kabul being crowded.

HEADQUARTERS MOVED

Moscow, April 18.—Advices received here yesterday from Afghanistan said former King Amanulla had advanced his troops about 650 miles from Kandahar on the road to Kabul, capturing Kalati Gilza, to which point he was removing his headquarters. The place is about 200 miles from Kabul.

Sewage Tunnel Is to Be Built

Vancouver, April 18.—Construction of the English Bay sewage interceptor, the five-mile tunnel will will drain all Fairview and Kitsilano sewage and carry it half a mile from the shore out into the Gulf of Georgia, will be started within two months.

A revised but final plan for the project was approved this morning by the members of the Vancouver and District Joint Sewerage Board. This action concluded thirteen years of planning, for the work has been considered since 1913 as a measure of civic sanitation and safety for Vancouver beaches.

DEATH LEAVES VACANT SEAT IN THE COMMONS

LATE HON. J. W. EDWARDS

M.P.'S MOURN LOSS BY DEATH

Hon. J. W. Edwards, Frontenac-Addington, Ont., Dies Suddenly in Ottawa

Ottawa, April 18.—Hon. J. W. Edwards, Conservative member of the House of Commons for Frontenac - Addington, Ontario, died suddenly early this morning in the Ottawa Civic Hospital following a recurrence of a heart attack which had afflicted him earlier in the week.

On Monday night, Dr. Edwards was first seized with an attack. He had participated in a debate in the Commons on the divorce issue and was leaving the chamber when he suddenly collapsed and had to be assisted to a member's room.

RETURNED TO HOUSE

He was under treatment in hospital until yesterday afternoon, when he returned to his seat in the House. He apparently had fully recovered and was accorded a greeting from all sides of the House as he entered. He did not take any active part in yesterday's debate, however.

Last night he complained of a recurrence of the cardiac trouble and was taken to the Civic Hospital, where he died at 3.20 this morning, a few minutes after he had been admitted.

M.P.'S AT SERVICE

Ottawa, April 18 — Members of all political groups left the House of Commons in a body at 11 o'clock this forenoon to attend the funeral service for the late Hon. J. W. Edwards, held here shortly before noon.

At 1.30 o'clock this afternoon, a train will leave with the remains for Kingston, carrying among others Brig.-General A. E. Ross, Conservative.

THREE MUST FACE TRIAL ON ASSAULT

H. Ross, E. Kelly and D. Bagon Committed to Higher Court By Magistrate

Request For Money Which Ended in Street Fight, Witnesses Tell Court

Harry Ross, Ernest Kelly and Dan Bagon were this morning committed for trial by Magistrate George Jay on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

"Hi'lo there, Scot. Got any money?" "No, I'm busted."

This was the start of an altercation on the corner of Broughton and Broad Streets last Saturday night which ended with the arraignment of the three men in court, according to evidence given at the preliminary hearing this morning.

G. H. Sedger, who appeared for the accused, reserved his defence. C. L. Harrison conducted the prosecution.

William Waters, a gas engineer in the employ of the Provincial Government, claimed that after he had replied to the query of one of the men as stated above, "Bagon came over and piled into me."

"DID THE KICK-OFF"

"He, Bagon, did the kick-off," said Waters. "He piled into me without warning."

A minute later his assailants withdrew and fled down Broughton Street to Government, witness said. Later, when the police came, he saw the three accused as they were brought out of the White Lunch.

Under cross-examination, witness admitted he had just had a few drinks.

MIXED FREELY

"I was looking after myself," said the husky witness. "I mixed freely with the one that first hit me."

W. Crothall, who said he was standing at the corner of Broughton and Government Streets when he heard a scuffle near the stage depot, said three men came running toward him and then went into the White Lunch. While a passerby phoned the police he had watched the place, he said.

ARREST

Chief of Police Fry testified regarding the arrest of the three accused in the White Lunch. The complainant was not under the influence of liquor at the time, he said.

Moving for dismissal, Mr. Sedger suggested that the whole affair was merely a Saturday night brawl. The complainant had admitted having something to drink, he said.

Magistrate Jay ruled there was a case to meet and, when the defence was reserved, he committed the men for trial.

NEW RADIO CHAIN FOR CANADA URGED

Vancouver, April 18.—The need for an all-Canadian broadcasting system to compete with the more powerful United States stations was emphasized at this morning's session of the Federal Radio Commission here in a memorial presented by the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Radio listeners' associations and station operators in Vancouver also made representations that the establishment of a Canadian chain of broadcasting stations was desirable, but there was difference of opinion as to how such a system should be established.

President George Hubbard of the Vancouver Radio Listeners' Association declared in favor of a Government-owned and financed system, while J. Edward Sears, representing two radio stations and also listeners, thought the Government should not enter the broadcasting business, which could be better handled by private enterprise.

DECLARED INEFFICIENT

During the session Mr. Sears characterized the British Broadcasting Corporation as "an autocratic monopoly, inefficient in operation and offering 'dull and dry' programmes."

Mr. Sears suggested that by regulation and inspection private broadcasters should be forced to come up to a standard or lose their licenses and that more exclusive radio broadcast channels should be obtained for Canada.

LOGGER LOSES LIFE

Vancouver, April 18—Struck on the back by part of a log that had snapped when struck by logs being hauled by a donkey engine, Robert Smith of Vancouver was instantly killed yesterday afternoon at a camp of the Abernethy & Lougheed Company at Allouette Lake. Smith, who was a rigging slinger about forty years of age, is survived by his father, Sylvester Smith of Marsden, Sask.

Arbitration Suggested For U.S. Rum Searches Of Canadian Vessels

Washington, April 18 (By Francis G Aldham, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Another chapter in the controversy between Canada and the United States over the sinking of the Canadian schooner I'm Alone in the Gulf of Mexico has been written. Secretary of State Stimson yesterday delivered to Hon. Vincent Massey his reply to the Canadian protest.

Secretary Stimson expects Ottawa will send him another communication before the contents will be made public.

Secrecy is being maintained regarding the correspondence, but it seems likely this country will suggest the whole question of the right of molestation of Canadian shipping under the anti-smuggling treaty should go to arbitration.

Fishermen Say Salmon Traps Wrong System

Prince Rupert, April 18—Salmon fishermen of this district appear to be practically unanimous in opposition to salmon traps. This much was indicated at the opening of the salmon inquiry by Judge J. N. Ellis to-day.

CRAGADOUR WINS CRAVEN STAKES

Finishes Length and Half in Front of Winton; Sir Cosmos Wins Handicap

Newmarket, Eng., April 18—Candidates for the classic races, the New market Guineas and the Epsom Derby, were on trial in two important fixtures at headquarters to-day.

Lord Astor's Cragadour, odds-on favorite, won the famous Craven Stakes by three-quarters of a length from Lady Nunburnholme's Racedale, who finished a length and a half in front of G. Deane's Winton.

Cragadour started at 10-1 against, Racedale at 7-2 and Winton at 20-1.

Cragadour and Racedale are Derby candidates. Thirteen three-year-olds went the mile.

Nine more Derby candidates ran in the Newmarket Free Handicap over the seven-furlong course. Sir Richard Barton's Sir Cosmos, carrying top weight of 126 pounds, won by a short head from Lord Woolavington's Balderneck and Admiral Sir Hedworth Meuse Yellow Orell was third, just another head behind.

Twenty-four ran but none of the Derby candidates were among the first three to finish.

Four Deaths in One Township Caused by Unknown Disease Since Last Friday; Bacteriologist Says Germs Are Streptococci of Most Malignant Type.

London, Ont., April 18.—Streptococcus, infection of a malignant type, more deadly than black diphtheria, has claimed the lives of four residents of Ekfrid Township, near here. An analysis of cultures of blood samples of the victims made at the Institute of Public Health here by Dr. A. J. Slack, acting head, leaves little doubt as to this fact, though the exact nature of the germs has not been definitely disclosed.

Dr. Slack's interim report had been sent to the health authorities of Ekfrid.

A Miss Sinclair, daughter of Mrs. Dugald Sinclair of Appin, Ont., who died yesterday, and sister of Barbara Sinclair who succumbed last Friday was brought to a hospital here this morning suffering from apparently the same symptoms as were observed in the cases of the mother and sister.

A dispatch from Glencoe said that if the outbreak should spread the Ontario Department of Health would be asked to send reserves of physicians and nurses.

Ottawa, April 18. — "He was widely versed in international and Empire affairs," said Premier King in speaking of the life work of Sir Clifford Sifton, who died yesterday in New York. "With the more important movements of the last forty years, and with the growth of Canada toward the fullness of nationhood his name will always be identified."

"It was due to his vigorous administration of the Department of the Interior that immigration attained a large volume, that the settlement of the prairies was rapidly advanced, and that they became one of the granaries of the world, thus giving an impulse to the general progress of Canada.

"I deeply feel the loss of one who was a lifelong personal friend."

REPARATION TASK HARD

Committee Meets in Paris to Try and Bridge Allied-German Gap

Paris, April 18.—The committee headed by Lord Revelstoke, charged with reconciling the vastly divergent German and Allied views as to reparations claims totals, convened here this morning unquestionably in an atmosphere of pessimism. Failure in its labors it seemed would mean reversion to the Dawes plan as a basis for Europe's war debt settlements.

The committee was named yesterday after the new German suggestion had revealed a margin of a billion marks a year (approximately $240,000,000) between Germany and her creditors on account of reparations for a period of thirty-seven years, and with nothing offered by Germany after that time.

The committee is trying to find some way of bridging the gap.

YOUTHS ARE SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Two Sentenced in Vancouver For Burglary; One Awaits Rulng

Vancouver, April 18—Penitentiary terms of two years each were meted out by Magistrate H. C. Shaw to-day to James Lawler, eighteen, and Clifford Sheppard, seventeen, youths who pleaded guilty to breaking into the Piggly-Wiggily store on Oak Street April 1 and taking away a 500-pound safe.

Fred Stewart, sixteen, who pleaded guilty with the others, was remanded until Monday for sentence. The court intimated that as Stewart's record was better than those of his companions, he intended to deal with him in a different manner.

The trio, captured after a chase through Point Grey woods, also pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile owned by Dr. H. L. Turnbull, which they used in removing the safe. The strong box contained $341.06 in cash and $28.39 in cheques.

The penitentiary terms for the auto theft will run concurrently with the burglary penalties.

PLANES IN EASTERN CANADA TO SPEED TRANSATLANTIC MAILS

Halifax, April 18.—Major-General J. H. MacBrien, president of the Aviation League of Canada and president of the International Airways, stated here to-day: "In my opinion the time is not far off when we shall see big ocean liners diverted from their present courses and calling at Halifax to connect with air services. For liners going to New York this would mean but an hour off their transatlantic run, whereas it would save a day for mails for Boston and New York, while other mails would be routed west through St. John to Montreal, Windsor and Chicago, mail for the latter city saving two days."

MAIL ROBBERY BACKGROUND OF COLUMBIA FILM

In "The Great Mail Robbery," the F.B.O. production now running at the Columbia Theatre, Nelson McDowell plays the minor but important role of a sheriff. The sheriff's garb encases one of the most profound students of character analysis in America to-day, for McDowell has made this subject a life study and is the author of two widely-read works, "Character Analysis at a Glance" and "Success Thoughts."

McDowell has been in pictures for eight years and has played important roles with nearly every well-known star in Hollywood, his previous engagement being with Norma Talmadge in "The Dove."

In "The Great Mail Robbery," which is from an original story by Peter Milne, the featured players include Lee Shumway, Theodore von Eltz, Jeanne Morgan and others. George B. Seitz directed, assisted by Ray McCarey.

TOBY LEITCH AS BUTLER DELIGHTS LOCAL AUDIENCE

Their seventeenth production since coming to Victoria, the Coliseum Players, under the direction of Raymond "Toby" Leitch, are appearing all this week in a stage show entitled "Putting It Over."

All the players are well cast this week. Forrest Taylor has a double role and portrays in the first part of the play a dope-crazed engineer and in the second an honest and upright man; Toby Leitch appears as a wooden-faced butler; Lorus Bagsley and Leon Cluff are realistic as business men, one honest and the other a crook; Paul Wallace has the role of a construction gang foreman, and between acts gains applause by his rendition of a popular melody.

Leading the female roles is Miss Leone Webber, who appears as the daughter of a wealthy family and falls in love with a man whose character is rather doubtful. She believes in him throughout, however, even when circumstances are blackest against him, and of course in the end everything ends happily. Miss Ada Daniels is good as a haughty society woman, always expounding her pedigree, while Miss Esther Todd appears as a wealthy man's daughter who elopes and marries against her father's will.

"BUDDY" ROGERS IS BAND LEADER IN TALKING FILM

With blaring trumpets and moaning saxophones, not to mention resounding drums and lamenting trombones as his media of expression, Charles (Buddy) Rogers "jazz-tunes" his way across the audible silver screen at the Dominion Theatre this week for his first talking picture as a versatile orchestra leader.

"Close Harmony" is a play of backstage life, and Rogers, as the leading male character, plays a role for which he seems splendidly fitted. Doubtless his earlier training as a player in the student orchestra at Kansas University had something to do with the capable musicianship of this amazing young actor. It was certain last night that the Buddy Rogers fans were agreeably surprised to see and hear their favorite in the kind of part they always wanted to have him perform for them. And those present who were not fans before the picture began were Rogerites after it ended in a blaze of musical color and romance.

Nancy Carroll, who was last seen with Rogers in the screen version of "Abie's Irish Rose" was gorgeous as the leading woman, playing the part of a song and dance headliner in a big cinema palace where Buddy and his band were given a try-out. Miss Carroll demonstrated the singing and dancing prowess that made her famous on the New York stage before she entered the "flickers."

HEAVY-BROWED VILLAIN NOW OUT OF DATE

Villains—whether of the polished modern variety—the heavy-browed, penny-dreadful order—or the mustachioed brigand type—are out of date, if one can judge from the Warner Brothers' "The Little Wildcat," which is at the Capitol Theatre.

Though the story is laid in the romantic south, nobody attempts to wrest the family homestead from its rightful owner or to wrong the two delectable heroines or to burn the house down.

"The Little Wildcat" is a comedy-drama and the only menace introduced is that conveyed in the role of George Fawcett, who as an irascible old aristocrat, flies into frequent tantrums on account of his hatred for flying machines—and his determination to boss his two unbossable granddaughters.

Audrey Ferris and Doris Dawson appear as the girls whose flirtatious manners keep grandpa so hot and flustered.

On the stage at the Capitol are Sire Engmann, the well-known concert violinist, Sally Harper, dancer and soloist, and Rae Verne and Palamore offering a dance specialty, along with Jack Medford, the smiling master of ceremonies, also Chris Wade and his Capitol Stage Band.

"TOMMY ATKINS" CAPITOL FEATURE FILM NEXT WEEK

The British soldier fighting in the colonies and defending the frontiers has always held a romantic place in English fiction; in fact, the whole world has come to admire "Tommy Atkins," fighter and lover, whose devotion to his home, his hearth and his country has been the subject of many a barrack-room ballad.

When British International Pictures, England's leading company producing photoplays, decided to produce an epic of the English "Tommy," it decided that it had to be done right. With this thought in mind the British Army Council was approached for co-operation, which was readily granted.

Not only did the War Office enter into the project whole-heartedly, but it went to the extent of assigning four battalions of English troops to assist the producers to make the military atmosphere ring true. These troops were the 1st Battalion Suffolk Regiment, 1st Battalion Somerset Light Infantry, the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders and the 19th Royal Hussars.

"Tommy Atkins" will be shown at the Capitol Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week.

TWO FARCES AT GARDEN FRIDAY

Hilarious Comedies to Form Co-optimist Double Bill at Crystal Garden

Two uproarious comedies, "A Marrying Man" and "Phipps," will be presented at the Crystal Garden tomorrow night by the popular Co-optimist Comedy Company.

In "A Marrying Man" Hector Brown, a sailor, is not satisfied with a wife in every port but appears to have several. He is reported dead by his incoming ship, and the shipping office is besieged by anxious wives.

The official in the shipping office is in love with Dorothy, who is the first to enter the office and tell him that her sailor husband is dead. This is an amazing admission, inasmuch as she had always been known by her maiden name. She consents to marry the astonished official, however, and everything moves merrily until the other "widows" begin to appear—and finally Hector Brown in person.

Hector denies that he has ever married anyone. The complications arising from this tangled situation are a scream.

A BUTLER WITH FEELINGS

"Phipps" is the story of a butler with feelings. Lady Fanny wants to divorce her husband, Sir Gerald, because the latter refuses to buy her some pearls on which she has set her heart. Sir Gerald is willing to help her secure evidence of cruelty and calls in Phipps to watch his master strike Lady Fanny. Phipps, however, completely misinterprets his role and knocks Sir Gerald down with a well-timed uppercut. When the situation is explained to him he suggests a way out of the difficulty which appeals to him as being the best possible solution but which will undoubtedly appeal to Friday night's audience as the funniest solution possible.

An extremely able cast will present "Phipps," consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. Legge-Willis, as Sir Gerald and Lady Fanny, and W. Tayler as Phipps.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Legge-Willis, Mr. and Mrs. P. Howden and Miss Doris Hassell, comprise another strong cast for "A Marrying Man."

WILL NOT BUY TREASURE

Hanover, Germany, April 18 — The Provincial Diet has rejected a proposal to buy for 5,000,000 marks (about $1,185,000) the famous Guelph Treasure, which for some years has been in Switzerland. The Hanover Diet decided, as had the Prussian earlier, that no funds were available. The treasure is a collection of early jewels and furniture.

PORTUGUESE PRISONERS FREED

Lisbon, Portugal, April 18.—An order was given yesterday for the release of persons who were arrested recently on charges of plotting against the Government.

SIFTON'S DEATH BRINGS TRIBUTES TO HIS LIFE WORK

Ottawa, April 18.—"Sir Clifford Sifton was one of the greatest men Canada ever produced," said Rt. Hon. George P. Graham when informed of the death of Sir Clifford in New York yesterday. Senator Graham was associated with Sir Clifford in the Cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"He was strong in his convictions and he had convictions on every question in the public mind," continued Senator Graham. "Once he believed in any project or undertaking, he pursued it with all his might. As a business man he was the personification of shrewdness, and while he dealt in large figures, he never was one whom one would term a plunger. Never was husband or father more idolized by wife and family. Canada received wonderful impetus in her growth from the immigration policies he initiated."

EX-PREMIER'S TRIBUTE

Sir Robert Borden said:

"I have learned with regret of the very sudden death of Sir Clifford Sifton, whom I had known for more than thirty years. He was a man of remarkable ability, of very strong character, great foresight and of wide vision. I found him always generaous and considerate of his political opponents. He was inspired with a sincere patriotism and no one had a broader outlook or higher optimism as to the future of our country."

Senator George Foster said:

"Sir Clifford Sifton was a man of strong intellect, of great industry, an able departmental administrator and a very effective Parliamentary debater. Altogether there have not been many men in Canada's public life who left a stronger impression of their personality upon its progress and development."

Hon. R. Lemieux, Speaker of the House of Comons, paid tribute in the following words:

"The Prairie Provinces owe much of their development to Sir Clifford Sifton. No one was more familiar with the needs of Western Canada, with the exception perhaps of Hon. Frank Oliver. Though handicapped in some respects by his infirmity (deafness) as a debater in the House, he was most direct and his cold logic was overpowering."

Missionaries To Leave South China Fields

Canton, China, April 18.—In view of increasingly unsettled conditions and communist activities, Douglas Jenkins, United States Consul-General, yesterday advised United States missionaries in southern Kiangsi and northern Kwangtung and Kwangsi provinces to evacuate their posts. The Roman Catholic Bishop at Kanchow, Kiangsi, telegraphed that the Roman Catholic chapel at Nagaoyun, Kiangsi, had been burned. He said Reds had burned the homes of well-to-do shopkeepers and farmers in scores of places in Southern Kiangsi. He termed the locality a "belt of unspeakable arson and murder."

WARM DEBATE IN BRITISH HOUSE

MacDonald States Labor Not in Favor of Breaking Debt Agreements

London, April 18.—Hitting back at attacks by Baldwin Government supporters on the attitude of the Labor Party toward agreements, Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald yesterday told the House of Commons the Laborites had no intention of repudiating any of these covenants.

His statement came at the end of one of the most exciting debates of the present Parliament, and was in answer to a challenge by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary.

The whole subject seems destined to be an election issue. It seems Premier Baldwin will make some allusion to it when he outlines the election programme of the Conservative Party.

SNOWDEN SPOKE

On Tuesday Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, who was Chancellor of the Exchequer in the MacDonald Labor Government, declared the Labor Party had never subscribed to the principle of the Balfour note and would hold itself open, if the circumstances arose, to repudiate its conditions. Mr. Snowden was critical of the attitude of France, declaring France had repudiated four-fifths of her obligations to Great Britain.

Making the Government's reply yesterday to Mr. Snowden's attack, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Minister of War, said the Government was "satisfied that the existing agreements with European countries are a fair equivalent with the settlements of these countries with the United States."

PRESENT VALUES

He declared a fairer basis of comparison was to take the present values of the various settlements. On this basis, he said, the French settlement with the United States represented 49 per cent of its debts, and the British settlement with Italy was only slightly more favorable than that made with the United States.

He asserted the principle of the Balfour note of 1922 was the foundation of British policy toward the experts' inquiry now proceeding in Paris.

NO WITHDRAWAL

Mr. Snowden, sharing in the debate said he had no intention of apologizing or withdrawing a single word of what he had said on Tuesday. He emphasized that the policy of the Labor Party was for an all-round cancellation of war debts and reparations. He said the policy was enumerated in the concluding sentence of the Balfour note, but that he had not characterized that part of the memorandum as "infamous." That policy, however, was not the one upon which settlement with the continental nations had been based.

He denied he had said the Labor Party would repudiate the Allied debt agreements. What he had announced was that the party would hold itself open to repudiate objectionable conditions laid down in the Balfour note.

In whatever revisions in the future might be necessary, he said, the Labor Party would hold itself ready to enter such negotiations without the halter of the Balfour note around its neck.

Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill made a short speech in which he said Mr. Snowden's pronouncement was dangerous in its effect on Europeon settlements and friendly relations with France.

Then Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, declared no worse day's work had been done in any Parliament and no greater injury to what it had been hoped would be accomplished in the next few months, than by Mr. Snowden's rash words.

SAYS POSITION IS CLEAR

Ramsay MacDonald said:

"Accusation has been made that I and my colleagues, if we become the Government, would not honor the signature of this country. If the present Government wishes to make that an election topic, we will appear and answer it.

"There has never been any intention by the Labor Party to make a profit out of debt settlements. Agreements made previously would not be sacred against revision. But so long as I lead the Labor Party there will be no repudiation."

Twelve Are Killed In Train Collision

Haal, Belgium, April 18.—Twelve persons were killed and seventeen injured yesterday in a collision between the Paris-Amsterdam express and a freight train ner here. The cause of the accident, aside from a thick fog, which prevented sight for more than twenty yards is not yet known.

All the victims were Belgians. Queen Elizabeth visited the hospitals to comfort the injured.

CONFERENCE IS MOVING SLOWLY

Disarmament Delegates at Geneva Find Many Cross-currents at Sessions

Geneva, April 18 (By George Hambelton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent) — The Soviet scheme for disarmament struck on the rocks at yesterday afternoon's session of the League of Nations Preparatory Disarmament Commission. It took a precipitous course through troubled waters and then tied the proceedings of the commission into such a knot that it had to be adjourned until to-day to see where it stood.

As the afternoon session opened the death of the Soviet scheme seemed imminent. Chairman J. Loudon of Holland observed that the great majority of the commission was evidently against the proposals he would suggest the commission proceed to the second item on the agenda without the necessity of a formal vote. This would have meant setting the Soviet scheme aside.

QUESTION OF RESPONSIBILITY

But Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet vice-Commissar of Foreign Affairs, objected. He thought governments should be compelled to take responsibility for their acts and they should be deprived of the policy of sheltering behind an anonymous commission.

The chairman then suggested the commission should vote on whether it desired the Soviet proposals en bloc as a basis for discussion in preparatory work instead of the commission's draft convention. The delegates were just about to vote when Turkey objected.

The Turkish delegates declared they could not vote on the question either "yes" or "no" as there were certain portions of the Soviet scheme along the same lines as their own proposals. They said they would like to have the scheme considered along with the draft convention.

BERNSTORFF SPEAKS

Then Count Bernstorff added a German objection. He too, declared he was not prepared to vote either way on the question as it was proposed.

By that time it was six o'clock and the chairman wearily suggested an adjournment until this morning.

expected to identify the deadly germ that has baffled the skill of medical men of West Middlesix County as well as Government officers and specialists called from London.

As a result of the outbreak the township board, at an emergency session last night, issued a proclamation banning public gatherings of all kinds and closing churches and schools.

The fact that from 400 to 600 residents of the district have visited the homes of Thomas Brown and Mrs. Dugald Sinclair, the two families afflicted, to tender sympathy and attend funeral services, precipitated the proclamation.

FIVE UNDER CARE NOW

Those who died were Mrs. Dugald Sinclair and her eighteen-year-old daughter, Barbara, of Appin; Daniel Brown, twenty-one, and Willie Brown, nine, sons of Thomas Brown of Tait's Corners, South Ekfrid.

Edward Sinclair, twenty-one, whose mother and sister died, is seriously ill in a London hospital. Four other persons are under medical care.

Slight hopes are held out for the recovery of Edward Sinclair. The youth was rushed to a London hospital yesterday a few hours before his mother died while being taken to the hospital.

The condition of Mrs. William Gates, Mrs. George Gates, Margaret Gates, and C. N. West, is slightly improved.

ANTI-TOXIN ADMINISTERED

Anti-diphtheria anti-toxin has been administered to other members of the Brown family who were in contact with both boys before their deaths at their home and cultures were taken of the two victims. Similar action has been ordered in the case of the Sinclairs. Though it is possible the Sinclairs and the Browns may have been affected with different diseases, according to reports both the Browns showed pronounced blacking of the skin just before and after their deaths.

Dr. R. W. Dewar of Melbourne Township, medical officer of health, believes all three members of the Sinclair family suffered from the same germ, though it may have attacked their systems in different ways.

CUT ON HAND

The germ appears to have entered Miss Barbara Sinclair's blood stream through a cut in her hand received when she opened a can of fruit a week ago. In the case of Mrs. Sinclair, Dr. Dewar believes her weak throat may have provided access for the virulent germs. The brother, who has erysipelas, seems to have been affected through some other avenue, but in each case the ensuing developments were so much alike as to appear identical. Dr. Dewar said he had not seen the Brown brothers before their deaths and was inclined to their view they may have suffered from a different disease.

FEVER DISCUSSED

Attending physicians debated the possibility that the victims may have contracted spotted fever, an extremely virulent form of typhus, but other medical opinion appeared to tend toward septic poisoning in the case of the Sinclairs and perhaps black diphtheria in the case of the Browns.

FOURTH DEATH

The passing of Dr. Edwards marks the fourth death in the ranks of the Conservative members since the general election of 1926, John Douglas, Antigonish-Guysboro, J. K. Fleming, Carleton-Victoria, and Dr. R. F. Preston, Lanark, having died within the last three years. All House committee sessions scheduled for this morning were cancelled by reason of the death of Dr. Edwards.

When the House meets at 3 p.m., tributes to Dr. Edwards will be paid by Premier King, Mr. Bennett and either Robert Gardiner, U.F.A., Acadia, or John Evans, Progressive, Rosetown, Sask.

Born May 25, 1865, Storrington township in the County of Frontenac, John Wesley Edwards was the son of George Edwards of Norfolk, England, and his wife, Elizabeth Jane (Lyon) Edwards of Frontenac, the latter being of United Empire Loyalist stock and one of the first settlers in the county.

He attended the high school at Sydenham, later going to Ottawa Normal School and then to Queen's University, Kingston, where he graduated as a medical doctor, having first secured his degree of Bachelor of Arts. For ten years he had been a school teacher in Ontario and Manitoba and shortly after graduating from Queen's was appointed county clerk of Frontenac, which position he held until 1909. In the meantime, in 1907, he had been appointed physician at the county jail and also retained that position until 1909.

ENTERED POLITICS

He was first elected to the House of Commons in the general election of 1908, as Conservative member for Frontenac-Addington and was re-elected in 1911 and 1917.

A staunch Conservative, Dr. Edwards gave support to the policies of his party through thick and thin. In September, 1921, he was sworn in as Minister of Immigration and Colonization in the Government of Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, only to be defeated in the general election in December of that year, when W. S. Reed, a United Farmer candidate, was successful. Shortly after that, his health broke down and for a time his life was despaired of. He recovered, however, and entered the Federal political arena again, being re-elected in his old constituency in the contests of 1925 and 1926.

ORANGE ORDER

Apart from the political field, Dr. Edwards was perhaps best known for his work in the Orange Order. Among the offices he held was Grand Master of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario East from 1921 till 1923, and Grand Master and Sovereign of the Loyal Orange Association of British America from 1923 till 1928, when he retired.

Dr. Edwards always upheld the traditions of the United Empire Loyalists, believing they gave great opportunities to further the interests of the British Empire. He took the keenest interest in immigration, and especially in the bringing into Canada of people of British birth.

In August, 1890, he married Miss Hester Jane Purdy of Frontenac County. There are four daughters and one son.

PRESBYTERY INCLUDES 46 NEW HYMNS

They Were Omitted in Original Draft of Revised Book

Toronto, April 18—After careful consideration and discussion of the respective merits and demerits of the words and tunes of the hymns under consideration, members of Toronto East Presbytery of the United Church, meeting in Sherbourne Street Church, endorsed the report of the committee appointed to review the new hymnal draft and advise such revisions as they deemed necessary. A pianist was called in at one stage of the proceedings in order that members might more easily judge the suggested alternate tunes.

The inclusion of forty-six hymns omitted from the original draft was the main point of the report.

The following hymns have been recommended for inclusion: "Softly and Tenderly Jesus Is Calling"; "The Man Who Once Has Found Abode"; "Work for the Night Is Coming"; "Holy Father in Thy Mercy"; "I Am so Glad That Our Father"; "I Love to Tell the Story"; "I've Wandered Far Away From God"; "Happy the Home When God Is There"; "A Charge to Keep I Have"; "A Few More Years"; "Birds Are Singing"; "From Every Stormy Wind"; "Jesus Bids Us Shine"; "Now the Laborer's Task"; "O for a Faith That Will Not Shrink"; "O Happy Home Where Thou Art Loved"; "Safe in the Arms of Jesus"; "Let Earth and Heaven Agree"; "Listen the Master Beseecheth"; "My Jesus I Love Thee"; "Never in a Ghostly Palace"; "Arise My Soul, Arise"; "Father in Heaven Who Lovest All"; "O Could I Speak the Matchless Worth"; "Servant of God Well Done"; "Stand Up for Jesus"; "Christian Stand"; "When Storms Around Are Sweeping"; "Lord Dismiss Us With Thy Blessing."

The following hymns recommended by presbytery's committee have already been reconsidered by the main committee and are now included in the main draft: "God Loved the World of Sinners Lost"; "I Am Thine, O Lord"; "I've Found a Friend, O Such a Friend"; "He Leadeth Me, O Blessed Thought"; "Blest Be the Tie That Binds"; "Jesus, I Am Resting, Resting"; "More Love to Thee, O Christ"; "Saviour, Thy Dying Love"; "Will Your Anchor Hold"; "God Calling Yet"; "When Mothers of Salem"; "I Could Not Do Without Thee"; "I Need Thee Precious Jesus"; "I Lay My Sins on Jesus"; "Who Is He in Yonder Stall"; "God of Our Fathers"; "I Think When I Read"; "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory."

MORE AIR HISTORY

YESTERDAY MORNING A PASSENGER aeroplane left Seattle and came to rest at Ketchikan, Alaska, in the afternoon, after a more or less uneventful trip.

We have become so used to new feats in the air that this voyage will be noted by the public and promptly forgotten. But nothing will detract from its importance.

It requires approximately three days for the ordinary passenger steamer to do the journey from Seattle to Ketchikan. The aeroplane required less than ten hours.

The development of these air services is of importance to Victoria. At no distant date this city should be a port of call for aerial liners. But unless an airport shall be established here, we shall miss the business.

We should provide ourselves with adequate facilities here for the safe handling of all kinds of aircraft—and then let it be known. The outlay involved would be relatively small.

WOEFULLY OUT OF DATE

MOST PEOPLE ARE VAIN ENOUGH to think they are up-to-date, and resent any suggestion that they are behind the times; but Sir Alfred Morine, formerly acting-Premier of Newfoundland, would not appear to come under this category, if some statements which he made before a service club in Toronto the other day are any indication of his general outlook on public affairs.

He first of all asked whether the people of Canada were so lost "to all proportions of their dignity" that they would continue to allow the British taxpayer to pay for the navy, and then proceeded to say that "each part of the Empire is thinking chiefly of its own domestic interests and only remotely of the Empire"—which could be changed, he argued, by the establishment of an Empire Parliament for the discussion of imperial matters in an imperial spirit.

It may be true that the Canadian navy would be of little or no benefit in time of war; but it also is true that the Canadian people will not permit themselves to be so foolish, so blind to their own best interests, as to be taxed for a navy that might be a potent factor in time of war. To begin with, they do not propose to be embroiled in any international dispute unless every reasonable mean of escape from it has been closed to them. They also realize that one way of inviting trouble of this kind is to create a large fighting organization.

Sir Alfred Morine also should know by this time that the peoples of the world are setting their faces resolutely against all policies provocative of war. The last war cost this country nearly 60,000 lives and more than $2 000 000 000; but apparently there are still those who have not had enough of this futile business.

It is an amazing thing that at this stage of the Empire's progress any public man should appear to deplore the individual development of the countries which compose it. As far as Canada is concerned, she will continue to conduct her own business in her own way, just as Australia, South Africa and New Zealand will, just as Great Britain herself will. Only in that way will the Empire survive and increase in strength.

There can be no central direction, no single economic formula for the whole, no common foreign policy except of the most elastic form. In fact, the principle of imperial federation, or an Empire Parliament, no longer is taken seriously. The occasional imperial conference, coupled with the new form of contact between the various Dominion Governments and the British Government, answers the purpose of inter-Empire consultation.

The ultra-imperialist should remember, moreover, that the history of the Empire itself furnishes ample argument in favor of an expansion of the system under which it has thrived in recent years.

AIRMEN—AND A NEW ERA

ONE OF THE PECULIAR THINGS about human nature is that it will accept almost any kind of change if the change comes unannounced.

For instance: If a group of energetic, restless young men should come on the scene and announce that they were about to remake the whole nation, so that countless old customs and habits would be wiped out and all the cities and towns would be moved closer together, we probably would resent it very firmly.

But when they simply go ahead and do it, without saying anything about it, we do not mind—indeed, we rather like it. Instead of defying the young men who are pushing us bodily into a new kind of society, we applaud them.

The aviators are doing just exactly that. Read this little news dispatch from a recent paper:

"Edmonton, Alberta—When 'Punch' Dickens, Edmonton flier, brought his monoplane to a landing on the Edmonton flying field the other evening he completed a notable flight of 1,600 miles from Fort Good Hope on the rim of the Arctic circle. The plane carried a valuable consignment of furs from the northern parts."

In those two sentences there is compressed a volume about the new order that the aviators are bringing.

The outlying fur posts in the Canadian Northwest have been, for centuries, among the isolated, unattainable sections of the world. Each man was separated from his neighbor by long days of hard travel. To get to civilization was a task that took weeks; long canoe trips on lonely rivers, endless treks across desolate waste lands, night after night of solitary camping in trackless forests and limitless plains.

Now young Mr. Dickens, gifted with the flip nickname "Punch," soars off in his monoplane—and puts the Arctic circle within twenty-four hours' time of the city of Edmonton. Without saying anything about it, he has simply taken the map of Northwestern Canada and made it shrink. The era of isolation and great distances is at an end forever.

That is what all the aeroplanes are doing, though we do not often realize it. The fliers are bringing us closer together. Our present form of society was drawn up to fit a country of long journeys and widely-separated cities; the aeroplanes are in a fair way to make it as compact as Holland.

If the airmen declared themselves in advance we might resent it; at the very least we would probably ask them to wait while we figured things out. But they do not. They are pulling all of us into closer contact with each other, wiping out old distances, killing isolation; and all we can do about it is recognize the fact and adjust ourselves to a changed era.

MR. SNOWDEN'S SENSATION

MR. PHILIP SNOWDEN HAS DROPPED the fat into Britain's political fire. He did it by telling the House of Commons that the Labor Party would not feel bound by all the conditions of Britain's debt settlements. His opponents interpreted his remarks as tantamount to a threat of repudiation. He says he did not mean that; but that a Labor Government would advocate certain revisions and enter into such negotiations as it might think necessary "without the halter of the Balfour note around their necks."

The former Chancellor of the Exchequer made it clear that the Labor Party stood for an all-round cancellation of war debts and reparations. Since there had been settlements of another kind, however, he contended that Britain had been altogether too lenient with both France and Italy. He considers France able to pay more than she has agreed to pay, the same applying to Italy. Upon this contention, apparently, he based the observations which have created such a stir.

What transpires after May 30 depends upon how the seats in the House of Commons shall be divided by the electorate. If Mr. Ramsay MacDonald shall be the next Premier and Mr. Snowden shall take possession of the Chancellor's famous dispatch case, the negotiations at which the latter hints may be undertaken; but after the experience of the reparations experts in Paris of the last ten weeks, there would appear to be little prospect of Britain driving a better bargain with either France or Italy. Meanwhile, however, Mr. Snowden's remarks have gingered up the election campaign.

CYCLISTS AND TRAFFIC

IN SERVING NOTICE ON CYCLISTS that they, as well as motorists, must observe the arterial highway signs, the Police Commission has taken the proper course. It also should be brought to the attention of those who ride bicycles at night that they must show the red reflector on the rear mudguard as well as a headlight. The absence of the rear sign exposes the rider to the risk of being run down, especially on those highways which are only sparsely illuminated, while the danger is still more emphasized when the motorist's windshield is blurred by rain. This point on a number of occasions has been brought to the attention of The Times. The rule should be rigidly enforced in the interests of all.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

CANADA ABOVE ALL

The Financial Post

After an extensive trip in which he covered most of the British Empire, an Englishman recently invested all his available funds in Canadian securities. He made this decision deliberately. He was a railroad man, and his travels had brought him in touch with many phases of economic endeavor in the countries he had visited. After a careful review, he came to the conclusion that Canada offered such potentialities to an investor, that he had no hesitation in placing all his finances in securities of sound basic Canadian industries.

There is nothing overwhelming in the decision of an individual to invest several thousand dollars in this country. But the very fact that the individual in question was not an eminent financier, not a foreign magnate, but a representative, hard-headed, practical business man, who backed his judgment with all his resources, makes his decision particularly interesting to the average practical business man in Canada.

Few Canadians doubt the future of Canada. This is a commendable and natural viewpoint. But there are still many who search foreign fields for their investments, in preference to the markets of their own country. The time, perhaps, too close to the picture of Canada's future to focus it clearly.

Loose Ends

The old-fashioned suspender of a better day—its decadent descendant in these unhappy times—together with Wellington's fatal mistake—General Dawes's pipe—and what what all this means to us.

By H. B. W.

THERE IS always something on which to hang a profound thought and a column of type. I hang this profound thought and this column of type, therefore, on the old-fashioned suspender. Play pause with me for a profitable moment amid the distractions of our shallow, modern life and the gurgle of Calgary oil, to consider the old-fashioned suspender; not alone for itself, though it is worthy of gravest consideration, but for the crushing commentary that it offers on our civilization.

* * *

IN THE old-fashioned suspender you have the embodiment, the very kernel of a better age that has gone. There was something to suspenders in those good old days. They not only ornamented, but they suspended, and with a reliability on which you could rest not only your trousers, but your honor and your very life.

* * *

THEY WERE big and broad and strong, and the device by which they were made shorter or longer, according to the shrinkage and expansion of the garments with which they were associated, was of good, heavy cast iron, with sharp arrow-like points which clawed into the elastic material and stayed there like the teeth of a bulldog. The name bulldog, indeed, often appropriately ornamented this splendid piece of mechanism, or else they were labeled "firemen" or "policemen," on the very sound theory that anything which would serve the needs of those great professions ought to be amply good enough for ordinary men. You always felt when you were wearing firemen's or policemen's suspenders that you could go through a fire or a riot unscathed. You could go through life on an honest, old-fashioned suspender.

* * *

YOU MAY ask what all this is leading up to. But you won't find out. Not until you have considered the frail, effeminate pink-tea suspender of these degenerate times.

* * *

THERE IS no comfort, no inspiration, no security in a modern suspender. You can never be sure when it is going to suspend or when it's not. And in the place of the mighty steel jaws which used to fasten the good old-fashioned purposeful, what-we-have-we'll-hold suspender at the desired distance from the ground, you find a weak spinster-like arrangement which is likely to betray you at any moment. It is no wonder that the lowly belt is making such inroads on the suspender family.

* * *

YOU MAY say this hasn't got much to do with anything, but you are wrong. It has a great deal to do with everything. The garish, weak-kneed dissipated-looking suspender is the voice of our times. We don't know how to do things any more. We don't even know how to dress. A man nowadays swathes himself in two shirts, a vest, a coat and an overcoat, throws in a pair of spats, which were not necessary even three years ago, and crowns it all with the supreme outrage of the hard bowler hat which only hard heads can endure, but there seems to be plenty of them. And at the same time in the same place in a precisely similar temperature his wife is comfortable in a costume which can be suspended on a ribbon or two. Indeed, the weaker the suspender becomes the greater the burden and responsibility placed upon it.

While women give their limbs freedom and poetic grace we men cling to our long trousers, though it cannot be that we have more to hide in the way of oddly-shaped legs than some of the sights which women are not afraid to show to the world. The Duke of Wellington is believed to have been the first British gentleman to introduce long trouser into society which was a terrible price to pay for the victory of Waterloo. It might have been better, indeed, to have lost Waterloo and kept the garments of olden days—not forgetting the good old-fashioned never-say-die suspenders.

I HAD planned to say much more about this matter. I had planned to discuss the fashion which requires that a gentleman at a social function after 6 p.m. shall seal himself hermetically in starched bulkheads, much like a mummy, and wear a tail coat which makes him the first cousin of a South Sea penguin. I was going to draw some soul-searing conclusions about the future of a civilization that hangs upon the modern apology for a suspender, but I have forgotten what they were. It doesn't matter. What is the use of talking to an age which has discarded the good old-fashioned suspender that had a soul.

* * *

YOU WILL find few men strong enough to smash the regime of the anemic modern suspender. When you do find such a man you find greatness. The sheer novelty of doing anything unlike his fellows forces him into a position of leadership. General Dawes, who is going to St. James as the United States Ambassador, is a good example. A few people know something about Mr. Dawes's commission which settled the often settled German reparations question. But millions know General Dawes's famous pipe of peculiar shape, and his still more distinguished collar, which has a V-shaped slit at the throat. Without them it is very doubtful if General Dawes would ever have been known at all, and probably would not now be Ambassador to St. James.

* * *

IF MR. BALDWIN ever allowed himself to be photographed without his pipe, or with his trousers creased, would he ever have won an election? I doubt it. Mr. Chamberlain's monocle is far better known than his Locarno Pact, and probably he could not have made one without the other. It is true that Mr. Lloyd George, a more spectacular personality than any of these, has no pipe, at least not for publication; no trick collar and keeps his trousers pressed. That's probably why he is out of office.

* * *

A CITIZEN can vote for a pipe, or a monocle or a collar slit at the neck, for he can understand these things, but a great policy may leave him cold. As a matter of fact, the greatest weakness in the public life of Canada is the lack of just such things.

* * *

WE HAVEN'T got a single man in office who can offer us anything of the sort. None of them has a pipe or if he has it never shows in photographs; none aspires to a trick collar, and you couldn't find one moncle in Parliament Hill. You can't maintain public confidence in our institutions long under these conditions.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The Victoria Daily Times, April 18, 1904.

Associated Press, Tokio, April 5 (p.m.)—The Japanese are elated over the success at Port Arthur. They are also proud of the achievements of Vice-Admiral Togo, particularly of his newest strategy of countermining the enemy's harbor and decoying him across this field of mines to an equally dangerous flank.

Weather forecast—Victoria and vicinity: Light to moderate winds, unsettled and cool with occasional showers.

The British Columbia lacrosse championship for the season of 1903 is still undecided, and a match to settle the superiority of the teams will be played off on May 14, the grounds to be decided upon by both the interested clubs. This course was decided upon at the annual meeting of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association, which was held on Saturday at the Hotel Vancouver.

On Saturday afternoon at Clover Point the Fifth Regiment C.A. Rifle Association held their first practice shoot of the season. Judging by the number of members attending, the opening shoot was very successful, there being no less than forty-eight taking part.

Chief Justice Hunter arrived last evening on the steamer Charmer from Vancouver.

TO REPRESENT HIGH SCHOOL IN CONTEST

HERBERT MANSON

who will represent Victoria High School in the Vancouver Island section of the British Columbia Oratorical Contest to be held in the First Baptist Church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. He will speak on "The Unification of Canada."

This is the second time the seventeen-year-old orator has represented the High School in this competition. Last year he took first place in the district finals but was defeated in the provincial tests.

Representatives from Nanaimo, Port Alberni and Sandwick will also speak on Friday evening. Five judges, whose identity will not be known until after the contest, will ascertain the merits of the different speakers.

The winner of the district contest will compete in the provincial trials in Vancouver. The successful candidates will continue to Toronto for the Dominion finals, where the Canadian representative for oratorical contest in England will be selected.

GOLD NOT TRUE WEALTH QUOTES LT.-GOVERNOR

Happiness in Music and Art Is Described By His Honor at Festival

Praised for the singing by school choirs, congratulations to the musical festival committee and an appraisal of the true value of music and art featured the address of Lieut.-Governor R. Randolph Bruce at the festival yesterday afternoon.

In the course of his remarks, His Honor said:

"I feel that the song that I am going to sing will not equal that of the competitor who has just stepped off the platform. I do feel, however, sincerely, that we in Victoria owe a great deal of gratitude to Mr. Watson and his colleagues, for the wonderful uplift they are achieving in the life of Western British Columbia. A few minutes ago, my niece and I were in the Methopolitan Church, listening to the most beautiful concerts which it has been my privilege to witness. Some six hundred children competed for the prize to be awarded to their particular school. It was a wonderful inspiration that we who were aiding young Canada.

GREATEST SERVICE

"To my mind that is the greatest service, because in Canada we have an enormous country, and it is a fine thing to see that essential to the making of a citizen. It is nice to see that we are not all absorbed in oil shares, stocks and bonds, that we realize that all is not gold that glitters, that we realize that gold is not the only wealth, that we realize that wealth in gold cannot bring happiness, that it takes the wealth of art, the wealth of music, the wealth of love, the wealth of knowledge and nature, to make a real citizen, and a real life.

"I do most heartily, as the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, congratulate not only Mr. Watson and his colleagues, but the people of Victoria, for giving their loyal support to achieve what they have done. Because without the support of the people they would be destined to failure, and it is, therefore, the free and loyal support of the fathers and mothers that it is making this possible."

OLIVE SHEA

Wins Praise

The quality of her acting as the Private Secretary in "The News Parade" is winning the praise of movie fans everywhere for this lovely newcomer to the screen. At home in New York City, hundreds admire her charming personality and she has fairly "set the style" on Broadway by the way she dresses her hair.

"The simple method I use in caring for my hair," says Miss Shea, "has been of great help to me in my motion picture work, where one's hair must always look its best. It's just the thing for busy girls, too, because it is so easy. Most of the girls I know in stage and picture work are taking it up as soon as they hear about it. All you do is put a little Danderine on your brush every time you use it. It makes your hair so easy to dress and holds it in place wonderfully. It's ideal for girls who are letting their hair grow. It keeps my hair and scalp so clean and comfortable. I don't shampoo half so often now. It gives my hair such a silky, soft, lustrous appearance that all my friends comment on it."

Danderine removes the oily film from each strand of hair, restores its natural color, gives it more lustre than brilliantine. It cleanses and invigorates the scalp; helps overcome dandruff. It is delightfully fragranced; isn't sticky or oily; doesn't show. Waves, "set" with it, last longer. All drug stores have it, in generous 35c bottles. (Adv.)

The daintily appointed candy and home cooking table was under the convenership of Mrs. Benwell, assisted by Mrs. Wrigglesworth and Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Greemday and Mrs. Finlinson poured tea and coffee, and Miss Wormald added to the guests' pleasure with several piano selections. There was a very good attendance of W.A. members and friends, and the returns were entirely satisfactory, and will enable the branch to carry on the various departments of work. The Dean and Mrs. Quainton were accorded sincere thanks for their generous assistance.

Miss "Babs" Campbell and Miss Irene Whitfield were joint hostesses at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Irma Knowlton, a popular bride-elect, held at the home of Miss Campbell, 3720 Saanich Road. The rooms were attractively decorated with Spring flowers, carrying out a color scheme of yellow and blue. Little Miss "Kae" Campbell presented the guest of honor with a shower bouquet of daffodils and fern, tied with yellow tulle. Attached to the bouquet were streamers of pale blue ribbon and cards bearing numbers of the numerous packages hidden throughout the rooms. Appropriate recitations were given by little Miss "Kae" Campbell. Prizes for the various contests were won by Mrs. Ted Andrews and Miss Evelyn Ross. A dainty buffett supper was served. The guests included the Misses Irma and Ila Knowlton, "Babs" Campbell, Irene Whitfield, Mildred Garner, Margaret Stewart, Kathleen MacKenzie, Evelyn Ross, Ilma Davis, Lily Stewart, Dorothy and "Kae" Campbell, Bertha Montague, Bessie Jones, Hazel Jones, Jean Halliday, Margaret Marlatt, Mesdames Knowlton, Patterson, Whitfield, Browning, Andrews, Jackson, White, Wilby, Maule, Pendray and Fletcher.

French Artists To Be Theme Of Organ Recital

"Bouree in D. Major" was the opening number played by Prof. Warren last night. This composition is by Wallace Sabin, a prominent San Francisco organist. [illegible] (Dallas) was exquisitely treated by Prof. Warren with splendid organ skill.

A humorous sketch, "Grandfather's Wooden Leg" (J. W. Clokey) suggested an old man stumping around on a wooden leg telle stories of his campaigns, finally falling down while in the midst of his story.

MRS. GANN PUTS IT OVER WOMEN

Had Place of Honor at Chilean Minister's Dinner; First Fruits of Victory

Washington, April 18.—Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, sister of and official hostess for Vice-President Curtis, enjoyed the fruits of victory in her fight for social precedence when she occupied the place of honor at the dinner given by Ambassador Carlos G. Davila of Chili, in honor of the Chilian Minister of Finance.

HUSBAND LOWER DOWN

After going to the table on the arm of the Chilian Ambassador, Mrs. Gann sat at the right, the place that would ordinarily be accorded the wife of the Vice-President, thereby taking precedence over the wives of all foreign diplomatic representatives present. Mrs. Gann's husband was seated among newspapermen and others with only a civilian status.

It was the first chance Mrs. Gann had to enjoy the outcome of the battle over social precedence which was carried to the State Department by Vice-President Curtis, resulted in a meeting of the Diplomatic Corps and rocked Washington society as [illegible] no other happening in recent years. Her place of honor at the dinner was in accord with the agreement reached by the members of the Diplomatic Corps.

Moreover, it was an added social victory, as it placed her far ahead of the wives of Senators who have refused to accord her the desired rank in the Senate Ladies' Luncheon Club.

The dinner given by the Chilean Ambassador was staged in the picturesque setting of the Pan-American building. It was given in honor of Senor Ramirez and at least 200 were present, including members of the Cabinet, Justices of the Supreme Court, Ambassadors, Senators, Ministers and members of the House.

HUNGARY WOMEN REFUSED VOTE

Ten Years' Campaign For Franchise Is Defeated

Budapest, Hungary, April 18—The Hungarian Parliament yesterday, by a unanimous vote, discarded a bill that would have given women the right to vote in municipal elections. This was the end of a ten-year campaign by the women for the franchise.

Every man who spoke on the measure said woman's place was in the home and not at the polls.

Indian Missionary Spoke—At the Metropolitan W.M.S. on Monday afternoon Mrs. Benjamin Pratt, who spent twenty-six years in India as a medical missionary, gave a most interesting account of her work. In the fifty years since the work began under the Wesleyan Mission in the district of Hydrabad, there have been 70,000 converts. The upper caste people of the village of Abraham-Putnam were eager to have Christian teachers, and to this end were willing to bear the expense and also the persecution which would inevitably follow. There have already been 1,000 converts and there are between 2,000 and 3,000 ready to be baptized. Mrs. Pratt's work brought her into contact with upper caste, lower caste, outcasts and also Mohammedans. In the devotional service the Scripture reading was given by Mrs. Clements, and the meeting was led in prayer by Mrs. Saunby. Mrs. Whitely, Mrs. Pettigrew and Mrs. Koyl, while Mrs. Gordon Jolliffe delighted those present with a solo beautifully rendered.

The appointment of Miss Lottie Bowron as an inspector under the Public Inquiries Act to investigate the conditions under which young girls teaching in the country lived and carried on their work, has now been made permanent at a salary of $150 per month.

SOLOISTS AT FESTIVAL ARE GIVEN PRAISE

Miss Dorothie Parsons and C. Bloggs Congratulated By Adjudicators

Victoria Male Choir Retains Challenge Shield Won Last Year

Singing of finalists in the mezzo-soprano and tenor classes at the evening session of the Victoria Musical Festival in the Metropolitan Church last night, received the generous praise of the adjudicators.

Miss Dorothie Parsons of this city, who was instructed by her mother, was the winner of the George F. Watson gold medal with 168 marks.

"Fine tonal qualities were displayed, the artist showed graceful charm and the entire rendition was quite delightful," said Dr. Daniel Protheroe in reference to Miss Parson's singing.

C. Bloggs, who with 171 marks, won the Centennial United Church gold medal in the tenor class, gave a smooth and sonorous performance, according to Dr. Protheroe, who in this event had the unique opportunity of judging one of his own compositions, "Ah, Love But a Day." The winner showed good rhythm and style, splendid intonation throughout, fine coloring, vibrant tone and was delightfully clear, the adjudicator said.

The winners in the pianoforte duet, Nellie Greenwood and Pattie Greenwood, Portland competitors, gave a remarkable performance at the evening session in Brahm's "Hungarian Dances," Nos. 3 and 6, and met with tremendous applause.

Richard Eaton, winner in the boys' vocal solo, sang the test piece, "Love Was Once a Little Boy, Heigh Ho!" and was heartily applauded.

Isobel Thompson, the winner of the Alderman H. O. Litchfield medal in class 68, under nineteen years, rendered the two test pieces which were also greatly enjoyed.

By request Prof. Warren D. Allen played during the evening Saint Saen's "Fantasia in D flat," "one of the finest organ solos ever written," Mr. Allen said, and of which he was exceeding fond. This again displayed Prof. Allen's organ virtuosity.

Dr. Protheroe congratulated the committee in selecting the two delightful numbers by Handel and Schubert, in referring to mezzo-soprano finals. "There were good voice in this class," he said, and he was glad to see "tonal qualities displayed." Lovely tone, lots of charm and entire rendition was quite delightful, he concluded in referring to the singing of Dorothie M. Parsons, the winner in the mezzo-soprano class with 168 marks, and was presented with the George F. Watson gold medal.

Miss Sheeley and Peggie Horne were requested by Adjudicator Prof. Allen to perform, the former playing Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." Peggie Horne, the winner in pianoforte intermediate class, will play to-night.

The Victoria male choir, Frederic King, conductor, retained the Knights of Pythias challenge shield, being the only entry in the class.

MALE CHOIR WINS

Dr. Protheroe regretted there were no competitors. He said singing in Wales abounded with male choirs. They were popoular and he would have like to have seen more competitors last night. He gave an instance of a soloist over eighty years of age, singing now as a young man at Cincinnati festivals.

MAKING THE BED A PLEASANT HAVEN

Beds are such convenient places to stow away small misbehaving children that a mother's first thought is to say: "Now, you bad boy, I'm going to put you to bed and you'll have to stay there until you are good." She knows, wily woman, that he is safe in bed, and, for the moment, out from underfoot; she likewise knows that enforced inactivity is a real punishment to the active runabout child and so she has killed two birds with one stone—punished the child and made herself more comfortable for the time being.

But using a bed as a jail or a means of punishment is a boomerang. Very shortly, the thought of bed is connected entirely with unpleasantness. The child hates it. When he is put into bed he feels exactly the way he did when he was tucked in that afternoon for breaking mother's favorite pickle dish. He howls at the sight of the bed, exactly as he howls when he deprived of his freedom, and then a whole new situation arises. The child won't go to bed, day or night, without screaming.

If the child has to be punished, use some other means of isolation than the bed. Being made to sit in a chair, or just told that he has to go upstairs until he can be good, is quite enough to send most children howling upstairs to return in five minutes with the statement that they will be good. And they do try. This punishment is just as effective as being put to bed, and leaves no bad after-effect. Putting a child to bed in the middle of the day as punishment and keeping him penned up with nothing to do is an easy way to train him in bad habits that are far more serious than the original fault. The idle child will amuse himself and his method of amusement is a serious one.

MAKE BEDTIME PERIOD PLEASANT

The child who goes to bed willingly has all his short life though of bed as a happy place, a real haven of rest and relaxation. He goes to bed when he is tired. He snuggles down in the soft bed, and being a small bird or a cuddly puppy for the moment helps the illusion of snuggling down happily and being covered for the night. The restful atmosphere in the bedroom, the mother's last chats with the child for the day, the sense of intimacy developed between the two all help to make this a period of the day which the child comes to with pleasure.

Adults look forward to the restfulness of bed, but they deprive the child of this pleasure by making bed a jail, instead of building up day after day a bright, comfortable picture of the happiness of being a tired, little child in a nice soft, warm bed. And if he is old enough to think forward one day and realize that he will be rested so that he may enjoy the next day to the fullest degree, he has one more incentive to go to bed willingly rather than being dragged to it screaming at the top of his voice.

Noted Berlin Beauty Specialist

Elise Bock...sends Canada a simple rule for beauty

Celebrated Berlin beauty expert urges her patrons to wash the face correctly and tells why the skin requires palm and olive oils

"Foundation cleansing—the daily elimination of all pore-clogging dust, powder and rouge—by one means and one means only, daily use of the soap blended of palm and olive oils . . . I urge all my clients to use it as well as my own Pasta Divina and Eber Cucumber Emulsion."

Elise Bock

BERLIN W. 158 KANTSTRASSE
ROME—PRAGUE—WIEN—SANTIAGO

YOUR facial loveliness, according to the celebrated Elise Bock, depends upon "foundation cleansing." And foundation cleansing depends upon the daily use of a soap blended of palm and olive oils.

The smartest women of the Mid-European world take all their beauty problems to Elise Bock of Berlin. Madame Bock's salons de beauté in Rome, Prague, Vienna and Santiago are well known to travelled women of fashion, who consult her constantly.

Known throughout the world

Many of our own lovely women go to Europe to discover the international fame of a beauty treatment which is already popular throughout Canada and the United States.

They go to Vienna and hear from Pessl this same truth. Madame Jacobson, of London; Massé of Paris; Lina Cavalieri, of Paris—these are just a few of the more than five score outstanding international beauty specialists who advise twice-a-day use of a soap containing palm and olive oils. They recommend one soap—and one soap only—Palmolive!

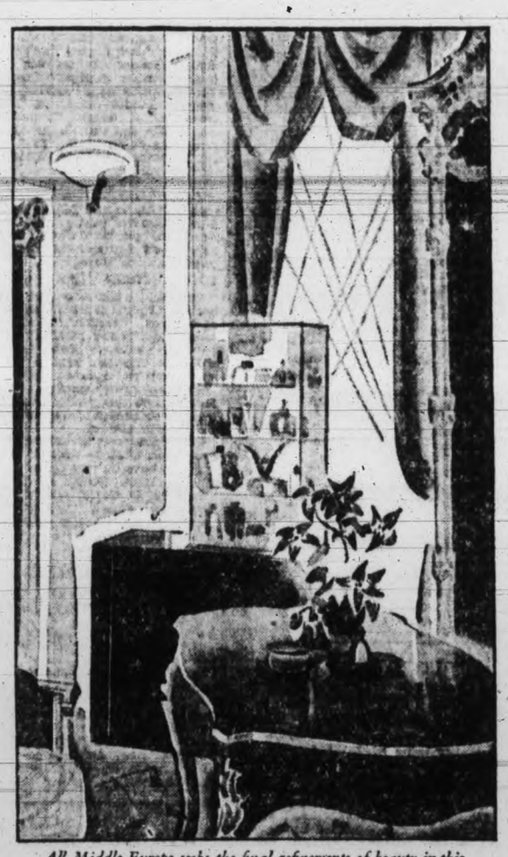
Leading Canadian specialists have long agreed on the importance of palm and olive oils in cleansing.

These are the reasons why Madame Bock stresses the importance of "foundation cleansing." Powder and rouge gradually work their way into the pores. Only a part remains on the surface. The rest combines with dust, dirt and oil. And soon, tiny, stubbornly hard masses form. Unless one washes the face this special way morning and evening—blackheads, pimples, dreaded blemishes appear!

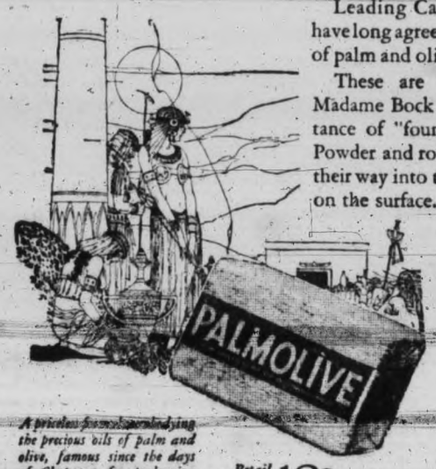
A famous 2-minute rule

This is the 2-minute home beauty treatment Elise Bock herself would give you in her select studio de beauté: make a fine, creamy lather of Palmolive Soap and warm water. With both hands, massage it gently into the pores for about two minutes, so that the olive oil suds work their way into the pores. Then rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, gradually letting it get colder.

What Elise Bock tells her Mid-European patrons, Paris long has known, for today, in France—home of cosmetics, leader in soaps and elegant toiletries—Palmolive is one of the two largest selling soaps . . . it is first in Canada and 48 other countries!



All Middle Europe seeks the final refinements of beauty in this smart Berlin establishment, the elegant salon of Elise Bock, at 158 Kantstrasse. An air of Eighteenth Century Beauty marks Bock's distinguished salon.



A priceless formula combining the precious oils of palm and olive, famous since the days of Cleopatra for prolonging health and beauty.

Scores Method Of Using Oil Station Adits

"Pedestrians haven't got a chance on the sidewalks in front of oil stations. Sidewalks are no protection whatever at these points," declared Commissioner W. E. Staneland at the meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon, referring to the sidewalk crossings in front of several city service stations.

The commission was considering a request of the Imperial Oil Company for sidewalk crossing at a proposed new station on Douglas at Broughton and the extension of the Quadra-Yates Street site.

"This opens a big question relating to future action along these lines," Mr. Staneland said. "To enter these stations is in reality contrary to by-law and we must give careful consideration to the location of the stations. At all events, all motorists should stop their cars before proceeding across the sidewalks to the stations."

In the case of the Douglas Street site the company was granted a twenty-six-foot crossing on Douglas Street and a forty-two-foot crossing on Broughton Street in place of the forty-five-foot and eighty-foot crossings requested.

Tax Saving Is Passed On To Auto Purchasers

Ottawa, April 18.—The spread between the list prices of automobiles in the United States and Canada is narrowed when consideration is given the extra charge of from $5 to $25 which the purchaser across the border must pay for service and delivery. This is pointed out in a letter tabled in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon from the president of a Canadian motor company to Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance. Statements had been made in the House that the spread indicated the benefit of the reduction in excise tax last year had not been passed on to the buyers as promised by the manufacturers. The Canadian purchaser, the letter states, does not pay the amount of any excise tax which the company is saved.

Athletics Display Batting Power By Win Over Senators

Connie Mack's Crew Hammer Out 13-4 Victory Over Walter Johnson's Squad; "Big Train" Uses Jones, Braxton and Liska in Attempt to Halt Scoring Rampage; St. Louis Came Through With Second Victory Over Chicago; Chicago Cubs Hit Batting Stride to Defeat Pittsburgh 13-2, Hornsby Hitting a Homer.

The East is gradually thawing out and the scheduled baseball openings along the Atlantic seaboard may yet be held, as witness the promising start in Washington yesterday.

Walter Johnson made his managerial debut in Washington by tagging the venerable "Sad Sam" Jones for mound duty against Connie Mack's choice, Yerkes, lately of Portland, Ore., and Hatboro. They were both wrong—Walter more than Connie. By way of correcting his initial blunder Mack sent for Eddie Rommell as the "Big Train" shuffled Garland Braxton into the line office.

Philadelphia led 5-4 as the second choice boxmen settled into position after the second innings, but continued their familiarity with Senatorial pitching or throwing until the margin had become 13-4 at the end of the fifth. Adolph Liska halted the debacle at this point, but the Mackmen gave no ground and the score remained stationary to the finish.

BAD TRIMMING

The Detroit Tigers poured a neat dose of shellac down the throats of the Cleveland Indians to the tune of 13-3, notwithstanding Averill's second home run in two days of major league effort.

Dan Howley urged his St. Louis troops on to their second straight triumph over the Chicago White Sox in the remaining American League skirmish. The score was 5-3.

The National League spotlight remained upon Wrigley Field. The full power of Chicago Cub bats struck Kremer where it hurt yesterday, the result being a Pittsburgh rout, 13-2. Hornsby hit for four bases with the bases loaded.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago, April 18.—The Cubs hit four Pittsburgh pitchers hard yesterday to win the second game of the series by 13-2. Rogers Hornsby capped the Chicago attack with a home run in the eighth inning with the three Cubs on bases. Perce Malone pitched for Chicago and Remy Kremer for the Pirates. Pittsburgh failed to score until the ninth.

Cincinnati, April 18.—Pounding Sherdel hard, the Cincinnati Reds evened matters with St. Louis by winning yesterday's game, 8-3. The Reds, who last year set a new record of 199 double plays, started out their assault on their own mark with three double killings yesterday, which materially aided in their victory. Bottomley laced a homer into the bleachers. The bases were empty at the time.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Washington, April 18.—The Athletics came rough shod over the Senators here yesterday to win the delayed opening game of the American League season 13 to 4. The Athletics pounded Jones and Braxton for all their runs in the first five innings, Lisbee stopping the slaughter in the sixth.

St. Louis, April 18.—Alvin Crowder, the American League's champion pitcher in 1928, won his first game of the season yesterday and the St. Louis Browns bagged their second consecutive victory over the Chicago White Sox, 5-3.

Crowder allowed ten hits, but was effective in the pinches. Clancy drove in all three runs for Chicago, with a single and a homer.

NEW FORWARD PASS RULE IS DRAFTED

Canadian Rugby Union Asks Clubs For Opinions on Proposed Regulation

Only Six Players on a Team Eligible to Make Play in Its Modified Form

An offside or modified form of forward pass may be included in the rules of Canadian rugby if plans now under way are completed.

At a recent meeting of the rules commission of the Canadian Rugby Union it was proposed to incorporate this rule in the present regulations. The commission, however, feeling that the proposed new rule would mean a very important change in the present system of play, did not care to take the responsibility of approving or discarding the suggestion without getting the opinion of those who would be most affected. After considering the matter the commission has drawn up a rule to govern this play, providing the weight of opinion is favorable to its adoption.

R. W. Hewitson, secretary of the Canadian Rugby Union, has sent copies of this rule to local Canadian rugby officials asking for their opinion. This has been done with Canadian rugby officials all over Canada.

THE PROPOSAL

The new proposed rule follows:

Definition—A completed "onside or modified forward pass" is one that having crossed the line of scrimmage, is cleanly caught by one of the eligible men of the offensive side, without having touched the ground or an ineligible man.

The Pass must be thrown from a point at least five yards behind the line of scrimmage.

Penalty—Rescrimmage with loss of one down.

The Pass may be thrown by anyone on the offensive side and received by any one of six players who shall be designated.

Penalty—If caught by ineligible man, rescrimmage with loss of one down and ten yards from where pass was thrown.

The Pass must not be thrown on the third down.

The Pass must be completed before crossing the opponents' twenty-five yard line. Penalty—If the pass is completed within the banned area by the attacking side, the pass shall be declared illegal, the ball brought back to the point where last scrimmaged and rescrimmaged with the loss of one down. If the pass is recovered by the defending team, the ball may be advanced as far as possible, with the option of a scrimmage on the twenty-five yard line.

If the pass is incompleted the players of the thrower's side become ineligible and the ball will be treated in all respects as if it had been kicked instead of thrown, and the rules as to yards must be followed, as done at present.

A pass thrown into touch without having touched any player is penalized by being brought back and rescrimmaged with the loss of one down. The touch line rule shall apply in all other cases.

Taylor Billiard Cup To Be Presented At Smoker This Evening

The L. D. Taylor Cup, emblematic of Provincial interservice billiard honors, will be presented to the Veterans of France team at the Interservice Billiard League smoker in the Britannia branch quarters, Broad Street, at 8 o'clock this evening.

Other prizes won throughout the season will be awarded to the respective winners.

The winning of the Taylor trophy was the outstanding event in interservice billiard circles this year. The local squad met the Imperial Veterans of Vancouver in the final for the cup and defeated them by a considerable margin.

Members of two years standing in the league are invited to attend the function.

"I'll Fight," Says Fan, Then Wilts When It's Heeney

Montreal, April 18—During the uproar from the Montreal Forum last night, where Frenchy Belanger and Johnny Hill fought it out for the Canadian flyweight boxing title, an overzealous fan sought an argument with a neighbor over the merits of the two boxers. The fan even declared himself ready to back up his claim with his own fists.

His "neighbor," a huge bulk of a man, turned slowly in his seat and the rabid fan found himself looking into the face of Tom Heeney, the "hard rock from down under," who disputed Tunney's claim to the title.

Straits Race By Motorboats Being Planned

An international outboard motorboat race from Port Angeles to Victoria and return to be held this Summer, is being organized by Port Angeles motorboating enthusiasts.

A public meeting is to be held in Port Angeles on Monday evening, when an outboard motorboat club will be organized.

Through George I. Warren of the Chamber of Commerce an invitation has been sent to Victoria motorboat owners to be present at this organization meeting, as many Vancouver Island entries are expected.

It is the intention of the Port Angeles outboard motorboat fraternity to arrange for handsome challenge trophies for the big race.

HIGH BOYS TO PLAY NANAIMO

School Hoop Teams to Fight For Possession of Thomson Cup on Friday

The Victoria High School senior boys' basketball team will entertain the boys' team from Nanaimo High School Friday night in the High School gymnasium. This game will decide the Island high school championship, with which goes the Thomson Cup.

Owing to the fact that the Vancouver high schools have severed connections with Island high school competitions, all Thomson Cups will now be emblematic of Island championships. Saturday night's winner, however, will have a good claim to the British Columbia championship, as the local team just took a home-and-home series from Trapp Technical by a twenty-four-point margin. The Trapp boys were runners-up on the Mainland, losing the final by only two points.

Coach Campbell of the locals will put the same team on the floor that carried the black and orange to victory over the Mainlanders. Bruce Macmurchie and Tommy Forbes will be at forward, with Bill Hill and Ray Kersey alternating at centre. Ray Rivers, Art Chapman and Colin McKenzie will line up at guard.

The game will commence promptly at 7 o'clock.

Men's Medal Round Will Be Staged At Uplands on Sunday

A men's medal round will be staged at the Uplands Golf Club on Sunday. Post entries will be received. Competitors must select their own partners and arrange their own starting times. An entrance fee of 50 cents will be charged.

Canadian Turf King —By Jimmy Thompson

A sure sign of Spring is the awakening interest in horse racing, and especially in Canada, in the running of the King's Plate at the Woodbine track.

Of stables with prospective winners of the King's Plate, Edward F. Seagram's is the largest in Canada.

The Seagram stables has fifty horses in training for this year's racing, by long odds the largest string in Canada. E. F. Seagram is the chief owner of the stable, with his brothers, Norman and Thomas, as his associates.

There are nineteen of these horses at Bowie in charge of Trainer Jack Whyte and fifteen at Pimlico in charge of Trainer W. J. Donohue.

Head Trainer Wm. Bringlee is at Waterloo looking after the training of the King's Platers, the province-bred two-year-olds, and Sir Harry and Gaffsman. He has just returned from Maryland where he looked over the other horses.

The stable jockeys are Leslie Pichon and Paul McGinnis with another to be engaged.

The King's Platers are the three-year-olds, Irish Sphere, Circulet and Dance Circle.

Vancouver, April 18.—With the largest entry on record, including 153 five-man teams, the seventeenth annual tournament of the Northwest Bowling Association got under way last night with eight local teams of the booster class competing.

New wood and new alleys proved a big handicap to many of the players, with the result that the scoring was not very high. Pegg Meters, with 2,442, were high among the four teams. Vancouver Elks were the only crew to touch the 900 mark in a single game. Ed. Mason, of the Vancouver Hotel No. 1 team, scored the best individual single count with 240. Booster teams will occupy the alleys again to-night, but on Friday the first of the visitors will be seen in action, including several Seattle squads.

TOOBY NETS THREE GOALS TO WIN GAME

Gives Saanich United 3-0 Victory Over Rennies in Mid-week Soccer

Youngsters Have Edge on Play; Rennies Are Still in Running

Three goals by Fred Tooby gave Saanich United a 3-1 victory over Rennie and Taylor in the only Wednesday League soccer match played yesterday. With fine weather, good grounds and a dry ball play was fast, with Saanich having the adge. Rennies were weakened through the absence of three of their regulars and failed to show their usual form all afternoon.

At half-time Saanich were leading, 1-0, and in the latter part of the second half they ran through for two more goals. Rennie's crowded the Saanich goal during the first part of the second half, but were unable to beat Restall in goal. This young goalie turned in a fine exhibition, saving a number of difficult shots.

NOT OUT OF THE RUNNING

Although beaten yesterday Rennies are not out of the running. They will meet the Hudson's Bay next week and a victory will put the bakers on even terms with the Bays, making a play-off for the league championship necessary.

Rennies were further handicapped towards the end of the second half, when Stan Wright was forced to leave the field with an injured leg.

Play opened fast, with Saanich adopting their usual kick and rush style. Geddes, in Rennies' goal, was tested with a number of good shots. Tooby opened the scoring when he rushed Geddes, after he had saved from Blanco, carrying the ball into the goal. For the remainder of the half play was fairly even, with Nex and John Taylor hitting the crossbar with hard drives.

For the first ten minutes of the second half Rennies worked hard for a goal, but Ashe and Main, the Saanich backs, cleared well. Bert Nex came close to scoring when he headed in Taylor's centre, but Restall made a pretty save to clear.

TOOBY SCORES TWO

Saanich forced a corner and Tooby headed Cann's centre into the corner of the net. Saanich's third goal came soon after, Tooby breaking away with only the goalie to beat. Carrying the ball into the goal mouth the outside left found no trouble scoring.

Rennies threw every man on the attack except the goalie, but they were unable to prevent a whitewash.

Hewison refereed.

The teams were as follows:

Saanich United—Restall; Ash, Main; Stonier, Love, Brown, Cann, Hawkes, T. Blanco, Tyson, Tooby.

Rennie & Taylor—Geddes; Gilbert, Newman; Plater, Wright, Stewart; Taylor, McIlmoyl, Nex, Purdy, Davis.

With the opening horse racing date in British Columbia set for June 29 at the Lansdowne track, in Vancouver, it will not be long before the ponies are doing their stuff.

A number of crack horses have already arrived in Vancouver, a carload reaching the mainland city from Tia Juana a few days ago. RALLY GIVES TOILERS ONE POINT LEAD

Defeat New Westminster Adanacs 23-22 in First Game of Basketball Final

Winnipegers Come From Behind in Dying Moments After Trailing B.C. Champs

New Westminster, April 18—Ability to come through in the pinch served Winnipeg Toilers well here last night. By staging a rally in the dying minutes of the first game of the Western Canada basketball championships, the Prairie team defeated New Westminster Adanacs 23-22, giving them a one-point lead to take into the second game of the series which will be played here Friday night.

Ian Woolley, elongated centre man, proved the hero of the Toilers. When the Toilers had broken through the Adahac defence to come within two points of the Westminster team, after trailing 5-7 at one time, Woolley got away and scored two baskets, enough to win the game.

TOILERS OUTPLAYED

Toilers were outplayed most of the night, but managed to gain the decision largely through the defensive tactics of the Adanacs. The British Columbians demonstrated early in the first half that they were masters of the Toilers when they came to a fast-passing attack and proceeded to run up a 9-1 score.

Evidently satisfied with this performance, the Royal City team eased along until the count was 9-7 at half time. Starting the second half with a rush, Adanacs soon ran the score up to 15-8. Then they again slowed down long enough to let the Toilers win out.

WILSON STARS

George Wilson, veteran of many a campaign, was the main cog in the Toilers attack. Wilson planned out most of the offensive formations, and it was his crafty way of slipping through the Adanacs defence that finally won the game. Woolley and Silverthorne, too, played well for the winners.

The teams follow:

Toilers—Silverthorne (3), Mott (4), Wilson (5), Sinclair (2), Thorogood, Woolley (8), Clifford, Phillips, Campbell. Total, 23.

Adanacs—Fraser (7), Butler, Gifford (8), Mayers (5), McEwan (2), H. Mayers, Hood, Wilkie. Total, 22.

Fouls—Toilers: Silverthorne 2, Wilson 1, Sinclair 1; Thorogood 2. Adanacs: Gifford 2, Mayers 3, McEwan 2.

Uplands golfers will tee off April 28 in qualifying round of the club championship. A heavy entry list is expected and no doubt keen competition will feature the event.

Belanger Loses Canadian Title To Johnny Hill

Montreal, April 18—Harry Hill, former English boxer, wrested the Canadian flyweight championship from Frenchy Belanger of Toronto here last night, when he took a ten-round decision from the Queen City battler.

On the same card, Leo Roy, Montreal, Canadian featherweight champion, lost on a foul in the ninth round to Jackie Cohen of New York in a non-titular bout.

Joe McCarthy, manager of the Chicago Cubs, says Dick Porter, rookie outfielder with the Cleveland Indians, should be a great drawing card for his owners. He has plenty of color in his play.

WILLIAMS STILL AFTER RECORDS

Olympic Sprint Star Equals Canadian Mark For Fifty Yards at Ottawa

Ottawa, April 18.—The cream of Canada's track athletes launched a savage attack against existing records at the indoor race meet here last night, but failed in their determined quest. Two Canadian marks were equaled and it fell to the honor of Percy Williams, sprint marvel from Vancouver, and Miss Ethel Catherwood of Toronto to record these achievements.

Williams, in a fifty-yard invitation dash against Johnny Fitzpatrick and Jimmy Ball, ran across the boards to equal the indoor mark for this distance in 5 1-5 seconds, nearly a yard ahead of Fitzpatrick.

Despite a slight muscle strain, sustained in the Montreal meet, Miss Catherwood demonstrated her supremacy as a high jumper. She cleared the bar at 4 feet 11 5-8 inches to equal the present indoor record.

BURNS UP TRACK

In the other events the Canadian Olympic star, Phil Edwards, literally burned up the track to capture the 800-yard event. In a field of six he lapped four of the competitors and breezed across the line more than 100 yards ahead of W. T. Tate of Ottawa.

Fitzpatrick, in winning the final of the fifty-yard open dash in 5 2-5 seconds, was never extended.

Miss Myrtle Cook of Toronto, who established a new Canadian indoor record for the fifty-yard dash at Montreal, withdrew from the local sprint.

IS INDISPOSED

She gave as her reason a slight indisposition, but later in the evening acceded to the insistence of the crowd and raced with her teammates of the Toronto Olympics to an easy victory in the ladies' relay event. The Ottawa girls gained second place.

Fitzpatrick, Williams, Ball and Edwards won the men's medley race. The final of the ladies' fifty-yard dash was won by Miss Kay Griffiths in a stirring finish with Jane Bell and Ethel Hogarth. All are members of the Toronto Olympic team.

Welker Cochran Stages Comeback

New York, April 18.—After four straight defeats, Welker Cochran, balkline billiard star, turned the tables on Allan Hall of St. Louis in their twelve-block three-cushion match. Hall now leads, four blocks to two.

New York, April 18.—Willie Hoppe took a commanding lead over Kinrey Matsuyama of Japan by winning both blocks of their twelve-block 18.1 balkline-billiards match yesterday. With the match half completed, Hoppe now leads by five blocks to one. Yesterday afternoon Hoppe cuffed in an easy victory, 300 to 141, in eight innings. He had a high run of 108 while Matsuyama's best was 96. Last night the American won by an even greater margin, 300 to 119 in six innings. His high was 196 to Matsuyama's 55.

LAUGHS from the DIAMOND

BY BILLY EVANS

Every Spring training camp produces its usual quota of recruits, all bent on winning fame and filthy lucre in the big show. As a rule, the rookies of each Spring produce enough merriment for the veterans to relieve the monotony that goes with Spring training after you have been doing it for a number of years. Each camp invariably has at least one recruit who is the target for most of the stunts that are pulled.

Few present major leaguers have seen more service than Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics, who undoubtedly will succeed Connie Mack as manager of that club when Connie decides to retire. For twenty years Eddie has been trekking south to prepare himself for the long and arduous strain that goes with the 154-game schedule in the majors.

A few years back when making my annual round of the training camps, seeking material for a story about each team as well as material for making a comparison of the eight clubs in each league, I came across Collins at Ft. Myers, Fla., and found him in a reminiscent mood. He began telling his unusual experiences covering the many Springs he had spent in the south.

"I've seen a lot of funny rookies in the last score of years, but I don't believe any recruit I ever bumped into gave me more laughs than a fellow by the name of Peters. He had been in camp only a day before someone had christened him 'Rube' and the name stuck to him forevermore. Despite the many real good laughs he furnished in the south, he saved his best one for our first trip to New York.

"During our stay in Boston, George M. Cohan invited the the entire Chicago club to be his guests at one of his shows then playing that city and in which he had the leading role. I felt that we, at least, should give Mr. Cohan a good hand when he made his first appearance.

"We were seated in the two lower boxes. One side applauded with much gusto, but the occupants of the other box gave Mr. Cohan no more of a welcome than if he had been an unknown. When we got back to the hotel, I took the boys to task and, in jest, picked on Peters as the target for most of my harangue.

"Going into New York we received an invitation to attend a performance of a show which was then a big hit here, its title being 'Bought and Paid For.' Having finished dinner Peters was ready to make his Broadway debut. He asked me if there was anything on for the evening. I told him yes, that I already had the show tickets — 'Bought and Paid For'.

"'Well, I'm glad of that. Now if I don't happen to applaud at the right spot because I'm in on a pass, I don't get roasted when we get back to the hotel'."

RAIL FIGURES SHOW PROGRESS OF ALL CANADA

Commons Committee Hears Report From Head of the C.N.R.

Ottawa, April 18 — The special committee of the House of Commons on Canadian National Railway affairs held its first meeting yesterday when Sir Eugene Fiset, Liberal, Rimouski, Que., was elected chairman.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, stated figures of the railway system showed the calendar year 1928 was the most satisfactory in its history both financially and from an operating standpoint. Out of every dollar traffic receipts earned by the C.N.R., 17.64 cents was available for interest. On United States class one railways only 19.21 cents was available for interest. Sir Henry thought this was very satisfactory, as many lines were in new districts.

SYSTEMS AID EACH OTHER

To the question whether the increased receipts of the C.N.R. were at the expense of the Canadian Pacific or attributable to National growth, Sir Henry said the net earnings of the Canadian Pacific had attained a record last year.

"Therefore I should say," Sir Henry asserted, "if I were a C.P.R. official that the National is an asset to the Canadian Pacific."

"As a C.N.R. official I consider the Canadian Pacific is an asset to the Canadian National."

"Then why not bring the C.P.R. down into Nova Scotia?" asked Colonel T. Cantley, Conservative, Pictou.

"Well, the C.N.R. is not yet a Christmas tree," Sir Henry replied.

CROP PROSPECTS

As to whether another wheat crop was expected this year Sir Henry explained it was impossible to forecast any particular year. However, there had been a steady and progressive increase in the quantity of wheat produced, extending over a decade. He explained it was generally considered the Great Lakes had a six-year cycle of high waters and a similar cycle of low waters, which must be ascribed to the precipitation. Canada was entering on the wet cycle now and it might be prophesied the greater rainfall would result in greater crops. The heavy carryover of wheat would assure much business in grain carrying this year.

NEW HOTEL IN VANCOUVER

In reply to Hon. H. H. Stevens, Sir Henry said there was no desire to delay the construction of the new C.N.R. hotel at Vancouver. It would be a 500-room hotel.

In reply to questions by R. B. Hanson, Conservative, York-Sunbury, N.B., Sir Henry said the C.N.R. hotel system had a loss last year of $135,000, but as part of the general traffic plan of the railway the hotels were good investments.

COAST LINERS TO BE BLACK

Emma Alexander Has Coat of Green Changed and Others to Follow Suit Shortly

When the Pacific Steamship Company's coastal liner Emma Alexander steams into port here next Thursday night from California ports, she will be clothed in a coat of black paint, her usual green garb having been taken away from her this week in San Francisco.

Information to this effect was received in Victoria this morning by W. M. Allan, local agent, from company headquarters in the south.

Mr. Allan said this morning that all liners of the fleet will be painted black in San Francisco. The H. F. Alexander, crack coast flyer, will receive her coat before commencing her Summer schedule early next month, and the Dorothy Alexander will be painted in San Francisco next week on the trip south from Victoria on Sunday. The Ruth Alexander, now on a world cruise will be given her new dress when she returns to the California-Seattle-Victoria run. She is due to sail from Victoria on May 19 but will probably be painted before coming north.

For several years now all the liners of the Pacific Steamship Company have presented a brave appearance in a pleasing shade of green. Just what the object is of changing this coat to black no one knows, but the new attire will doubtless be as suitable.

Summer travel by coastwise steamers on the Pacific slope will be heavier this year than at any time within the past several years was the opinion advanced in San Francisco yesterday by H. B. Brittan, general passenger agent for the Pacific Steamship Company upon his return to his office there after a three-week tour of the middlewest. He based his prediction on reports of tourist agents he had visited.

SHIDZUOKA DUE HERE TO-MORROW

From ports in China and Japan, the N.Y.K. liner Shidzuoka Maru is expected to arrive at the William Head quarantine station to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, according to latest word received in the city by A. H. Hebb, local agent, from the master of the vessel.

This time should bring her alongside the Rithet piers about 5 o'clock to discharge more than 200 tons of cargo. It is understood that the liner has 3,400 bales of raw silk aboard for Seattle discharge.

TWO BLUE FUNNEL LINERS DUE SOON

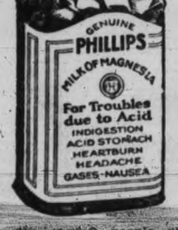
Two Blue Funnel liners will be in port here next Tuesday, one inbound from the Orient and the other outbound.

The Protesilaus is now steaming towards the Pacific Coast from ports in China and Japan and is expected here next Tuesday morning. Exact time of her arrival will be announced later.

During the afternoon of the same day the Tyndareus, which docked two weeks ago from the Far East will sail with a capacity cargo and a seasonable passenger list.

Quick Pile Relief

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is guaranteed to banish any form of Pile misery, or money back. It gives quick action even in old, stubborn cases. Hem-Roid is a harmless tablet that removes blood congestion in the lower bowel—the cause of piles. It brings joyful relief quickly and safely or costs nothing. MacFarlane Drug Co., Vancouver Drug Co., and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee. (Advt.)



Indigestion
Immediate Relief!

When most people complain of indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. The food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful of Milk of Magnesia neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate, with no bad after-effects. Once you learn this fact, you will never deal with excess acid in the crude ways. Go learn—now—why this method is supreme.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore. (Advt.)

Seventy Men In Service Of C.N.R. 2,237 Years

National Railway Has More Than 2,936 Men on Retired List, Receiving Annually $1,639,358 in Pensions.

Montreal, April 18.—Service totaling 2,237 years, a period greater than that represented by the Christian era, is represented by the working records of seventy men who have recently retired from the Canadian National Railways, and whose retirement received the approval of the pensions committee. This particular group of men have been engaged in active railroad work for periods ranging from fifteen years to fifty-five years, the latter record being established by a man whose actual age at retirement was only sixty-eight years, indicating an early start on the serious matter of earning a livelihood.

There are now on the retired lists of the Canadian National Railways a force of 2,936 men who during the past year received $1,639,358 in pensions. They fall under two classifications, the provident fund, which was established on the former Intercolonial Railway, and a pension list for employees who served on the other lines which now form part of the entire National system. During active service some of these men contributed to the provident fund, the balance necessary to provide the total required being supplied from the company's treasury.

Of the group of seventy men referred to in the foregoing, four served respectively fifty-one, fifty-three (two men) and fifty-five years, a total of 212 years for this quartette of workers. The longest service was that of J. Morrison, an assistant foreman in the car department at Sarnia, Ont. Those who served fifty-three years were J. D. McMillan who on retirement was superintendent at Belleville, Ont., and A. E. Dennison, an engineer, at Deering, Mich. Like Mr. Morrison, Mr. Dennison also made an early start at his work, being sixty-nine years of age on retiring. The fourth member of this quartette, each of whom served for over half a century, was A. Sutherland, agent at Fenelon Falls, who had fifty-one years to his credit.

That railroading possesses a real attraction to men is shown by the fact that, in addition to the four mentioned, nineteen veterans served for periods of from forty to forty-nine years, while the average of service for the seventy men is approximately thirty-two years. One woman is included in the list, a clerk in the audit department, who served for forty-three years.

Empress Of France Now En Route Here

Bound for Victoria and Vancouver, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France sailed from Yokohama to-day for this port, according to schedule in the hands of L. D. Cnetham, local agent. She is expected here on Saturday morning, April 27.

It is expected that the Prince will bring in a heavy passenger list this trip as travel at this season of the year is routed from the Orient. She will also bring in a heavy cargo.

SURVEY PARTY DUE ON MONDAY

Liner President Grant Bringing in Members of Geodetic Survey Party After Tour

A large and distinguished list of passengers will pass through Victoria on Monday morning aboard the American Mail liner President Grant, according to information received in the city this morning from Seattle headquarters of the company. Among the 527 passengers, a large number of whom are in the first cabin, are several members of the United States Geodetic Survey returning from their labors in the Orient.

Included in this party are H. Thurnmond, R. Mainate, H. McCormick and L. Loken. Another passenger is Lieutenant Trimble, aid to Major-General MacArthur, commander of the Philippine Department of the United States army, en route to this continent on business for his chief.

En route to Washington, D.C., is Richard Ely, accompanied by Mrs. Ely. Mr. Ely is assistant secretary to the Governor-General of the Philippine Islands and will supply further details for an official report now being prepared on the Islands.

Capt. M. M. Jensen will be on the bridge of the big green liner when she arrives on Monday morning. In the holds of the vessel for discharge at this port are more than 500 tons of general cargo, so that the ship will probably dock early in the morning so as to be ready to sail for Seattle at 10 o'clock.

THREE FINED ON DRIVING COUNTS

Total of $65 Collected From Speedy Motorists in Police Court

Three motorists contributed $65 toward the city treasury to-day when they were fined in City Police Court on charges of driving to the common danger.

Hubert Bevan and H. D. Genn pleaded guilty to charges involving offences on Hillside Avenue, April 2 and Richardson Street on April 10, respectively. Bevan was fined $25 and Genn $20.

David Denvigh was fined $20 when convicted of an offence on April 12 on Yates Street, between Fort and Quadra Streets. Constable James Petterson testified the accused drove at the rate of forty miles an hour down the hill.

TEMERATURE UNDERGROUND

At a depth of fifty or sixty feet underground, the temperature remains constant throughout the year and is about the same as the average annual air temperature for the region in question. Below this level the temperature increases.

SEATTLE PLANE NOW IN ALASKA

Arrived in Ketchikan Yesterday and Expected to Get Away to Juneau To-day

Ketchikan, Alaska, April 18.—Less than ten hours after it had left Seattle, the Gorst Air Transport plane came down on the Ketchikan landing field at 4.40 p.m. yesterday. Vern C. Gorst, owner of the line, who was a passenger, said he was considering regular passenger aeroplane service to southeastern Alaska was feasible.

The eight-plane amphibian plane, piloted by Clayton Scott, carried the first paying passenger ever to come to Alaska by air from the United States. He was A. C. Iverson, who paid $100 for transportation to Juneau.

It was stated the plane would leave for Juneau at 10 o'clock this morning, and would return to Seattle within ten days, after completing a survey of the feasibility of a Seattle-Juneau air service.

For the first time in the history of Alaska, a daily newspaper published in the United States was read in Alaska the same day it came off the press when Gorst distributed a dozen copies of The Seattle Post-Intelligencer to the crowd which welcomed the plane.

Stops for refueling were made at Campbell River, B.C., and Prince Rupert, B.C. The 600-mile flight to Prince Rupert was made in about eight hours elapsed time. Ideal weather conditions prevailed.

Gordon Graham was mechanic on the flight and E. M. Greenwood was another passenger.

PRINCESS ALICE TAKES BIG LIST

Will Sail From Vancouver For Skagway To-night With 160 First Class Passengers

Officials and boat crews of the White Pass and Yukon Railway and business people of Alaska and the Yukon returning north after spending the Winter months in Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria will comprise the passenger list of the Canadian Pacific Coast steamer Princess Alice when she sails from Vancouver at 9 o'clock to-night for Skagway and way ports. She will carry 160 first-class passengers to the north.

A party of twenty-five employees of the White Pass Railway Company will be on board. These include the captain officers and crew of the river steamer Alaska which will open navigation on Lower Lake Lebarge about May 15.

The next three or four sailings from Vancouver will take north large numbers to man the numerous river steamers which ply Lake Atlin, the Yukon River and other streams during the Summer months.

The White Pass list is headed by W. R. Gordon, superintendent of the company with headquarters at Whitehorse. Other company employees will be P. Larsen, chief engineer of the steamer Whitehorse; W. C. Ven, chief engineer on the steamer Alaska; Dan McKay, master of the Whitehorse; R. S. Wilson, chief steward of the Alaska, and F. Walsh, chief steward of the river boat Keno. Another passenger will be J. Pickering, owner and operator of the stage line between Whitehorse and Dawson.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, April 18.—Within a space of two and a half hours, three large off-shore passenger liners arrived here yesterday. The first to make port was the Dollar liner President Jefferson from the Orient with 148 cabin passengers and a full list of freight. She was followed by the Panama Pacific liner California from New York, and the Matson liner Malolo from the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Maurice L. Jacks, headmaster of Mill Hill School, at a prize distribution at Finchley, said he found the following howler in a schoolboy's examination paper:

Question: What is the feminine of bachelor?

Answer: A lady-in-waiting.

I'm Alone Captain Demands Reparation For Death Of Sailor

Montreal April 18.—"The premier ideal of all my work from now on is going to be to obtain recompense or indemnity for that man who was drowned on the fateful night when my ship was sunk in the Gulf of Mexico by the two United States coastguards craft," said Captain J. T. Randall, who was skipper of the Canadian schooner I'm Alone. Captain Randall arrived in Montreal to-day en route to Ottawa.

He declared he would never rest until he had seen that justice was done in the case of Leon Mainguy, the French citizen who perished after the vessel had gone down.

Captain Randall stated he had signed a contract with Ernest Shipman, of Ottawa, producer, to act as captain-manager of an expedition to South America, where travelogue news reels and romances with real local color behind them will be filmed.

DOROTHY WILL DOCK AT 10.30

M. Allan, local agent, from Capt. G. A. Harris, master of the liner. This time will enable the vessel to get away to Seattle by midnight.

Loses $40,000 In Card Games During Atlantic Passage

New York, April 18. — A passenger who arrived yesterday on the liner Majestic went to the Rogues' Gallery at police headquarters here and picked out the photograph of a man as one of a group to whom he had given $40,000 in credit cheques for card game losses during the voyage, payment having been stopped on the cheques.

Duncan McLeod, retired, coming from Scotland, met the men at the start of the voyage and consistently believed them to be gentlemen, despite the warning of his friends. In the first game, McLeod said, he won $165, but from then on lost steadily.

HE WAS LIFELESS AND DESPONDENT

But ALL-BRAN made him wide-awake and well — doctor prescribed it

CONSTIPATION ruins hopes, saps strength. Yet thousands of sufferers have found the way to relieve and prevent this disease. Read how this man rid his system of constipation.

"During the three years before ALL-BRAN cured me, I experienced more embarrassing moments than I care to tell of. Being lifeless, dull, logy and despondent, I could not keep my job. My friends didn't want my company and I was tired of being asked 'What in the world is the matter with you?'

"After spending much money for treatment, I finally found a doctor who advised me to eat ALL-BRAN three times a day. I did this for three months and I didn't need to be told that I looked better . . . I felt better and acted better . . . I am still using ALL-BRAN every morning and have no trouble now whatsoever." (Name and address upon request.)

Guard against constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to prevent it—to relieve it. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Far better than habit-forming drugs and pills.

ALL-BRAN is 100% effective. Doctors recommend it because it promotes natural elimination. Serve it with milk or cream. Use it in cooking—muffins, bread, etc. Delicious recipes on the package. Grocers sell it. Restaurants, hotels, dining-cars service it. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Canada's National Policy Outlined By Premier King In Most Masterly Speech

British Preference to be Extended; Cool-headed Attitude Favored in Tariff and St. Lawrence Seaway Problems, Which Must Not Be Linked in Negotiations, He Declares; Neighborly Friendship Between Countries is Aim; Debt-retirement Fund Planned.

SPEECH IN HOUSE HIGHLY PRAISED

PREMIER MACKENZIE KING

Ottawa.—Ten minutes of enthusiastic Liberal cheering followed the speech of Premier Mackenzie King in the Commons last Tuesday, in the course of which the Prime Minister declared that Canada's attitude toward supposedly impending United States tariff increases would be "cool-headed" rather than "red-blooded"; that an upward revision of United States tariff adversely affecting Canadian trade would be followed by a revision in the Canadian tariff next session; that St. Lawrence seaway and tariff considerations were not to be mixed up in Canadian-United States deliberations; That Canada, living as close neighbor to the great American Republic, hoped that, as far as possible, each nation's actions would be helpful rather than harmful to each other; that the Government from this time forward hoped to extend and increase the British preference; and that in the near future a debt-retirement sinking fund is to be established.

These were the new high spots in the Prime Minister's Speech to a full Commons, but the wild Liberal demonstration which ensued was probably directed more at the manner in which Mr. King dissected and analyzed and claimed to have shattered the previous budget arguments of Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Conservative financial critic. The Liberals, in lobbies afterward, claimed the Premier's speech to be the best to which they had ever listened.

RESPONSE IS VIGOROUS

And certainly the warmth and vigor of cheering—the heartiest of this or recent sessions—and the volume accorded the French song, "Il a Gagne ses Epaulettes," struck up by the French Liberals in unison at its conclusion, indicated that there was no division of opinion among members to the right of Speaker as to its quality.

Some of the Premier's utterances are of utmost national importance. For instance, concerning the United States tariff, he said: "I repeat that, so far as the United States tariff is concerned, that is a matter which the United States must settle for itself in accordance with its own interests, and the United States will be the first to recognize that, if in any action they take our trade with them is adversely affected, it is our duty and our right and will be and should be our policy to see that we make such arrangements with respect to our tariff as will further our interest in our own way."

And on St. Lawrence waterways: "May I say I can conceive of no greater misfortune than that the question of the St. Lawrence waterways should be mixed up in any way with the question of tariff, or that the tariff of Canada should be related to the development of the St. Lawrence."

Mr. Cahan—Did the Prime Minister himself not suggest it in correspondence with the United States?

Mr. King—Reference was made to the tariff, but it was made in a way which illustrates the truth of what I have been saying: the wisdom of not having steps taken with respect to one question which may possibly prejudice the solution of another question.

INCREASED BRITISH PREFERENCE

And this: "We have year after year considered carefully whether we were able to stand an increase in the British preference, and may I say to my honorable friends (the Progressives) we intend to do this from this time onward."

And also: "In the condition of prosperity in which Canada is to-day, would it be desirable on the part of the Administration to take any action with respect to the tariff in Canada which could be regarded as provocative by those across the line who may be interested in seeking to raise tariffs in that country? . . . In the knowledge we have now, had we done what honorable gentlemen opposite wish us to do, raise the tariff, we would be creating in the minds of the American people the very sentiment which would cause them to raise their tariff higher than perhaps they ever intended to raise it. We ought not to take any action of a provocative character."

SATIRE FOR OPPOSITION

In a manner which evoked waves of laughter from his followers the Premier satirized the Conservatives on the absence of the word "protection" from their amendment, and the apparent determination since the Winnipeg convention to keep the word hidden and screened in Conservative pronouncements. Yet, said the Premier, the Conservative amendment meant higher protection. Both the Conservative amendment, lamenting the alleged failure to safeguard the interests of agriculture and industry, and the Progressive amendment, asking for increased British preference, he said, were want-of-confidence motions, which, if carried, would involve the defeat of the Government.

The first part of the Premier's speech, lasting from 3:20 until perhaps 5:20, was a detailed resume of statistics relating to Government and Liberal Party accomplishments and policies, obviously intended for distribution in pamphlet form for Liberal Party purposes. It constituted an itemized answer to the speech of Hon. Hugh Guthrie, which the Conservatives broadcast to the country in 175,000 booklets.

DIVERGENT AMENDMENTS

Premier King spoke, in part, as follows: "I should like to say a few words in regard to the amendments which are before the House at the present time to the motion that has been made by the Minister of Finance that the House go into Committee of Ways and Means. During the last few years on each occasion that the Minister of Finance has brought in his budget, we have been confronted, as regularly as the years themselves, with amendments of the honorable gentlemen opposite, amendments which were diametrically opposite in character. We have had one amendment which has asked us to increase taxation, to raise the tariff, to give more in the way of protection; and we have had from the other end of the Chamber an amendment for less in the way of taxation, for reduction in customs duties, for less in the way of protection. On each occasion we have met those amendments by pointing out that it was the policy of the Government to pursue a moderate course, avoiding the extreme in one direction as well as the extreme in the other: to take that course which would help to bring prosperity to this country. Our course is vindicated by the position of the country at the present time. We have the prosperity at which we have aimed, and we intend to hold it and, if possible, to increase it. We intend to hold and increase it by exactly the same methods as we have adopted in the past. To-day we are confronted with these similar amendments. If we take the amendment of honorable gentlemen opposite and strip it of its verbiage, what does it mean? More in the way of taxation, higher tariff, more in the way of protection. On the other hand, honorable gentlemen at the other end of the Chamber ask us to go a little farther in reduction of taxation, in reducing duties, and a little farther away from protection.

U.S. TARIFF CHANGES

"This year differs from other years in one essential particular. This year when the Government was preparing its budget it had before it the knowledge, which is common throughout the continent, that a neighboring country was about to make certain changes in its tariff, changes which may materially affect trade between the two countries. Trade between this country and the United States is the greatest trade that exists between any two countries in the world, and naturally we are interested in what citizens of that Republic do with respect to matters which may affect that trade. We are interested in all that affect the industrial conditions of that country because, as we know from experience, matters are so interrelated in economic affairs that it is seldom one portion of this country is appreciably affected in a matter of depression without other parts being also affected.

"We have word of those in authority in the neighboring Republic that there are to be certain measures to be introduced at a special session of Congress. An important measure, we are led to believe, is a measure relating to farm relief. Another measure relates to certain limited adjustments of the tariff; I think that is the expression which has been officially used. Having that knowledge before us, I ask honorable gentlemen, irrespective of party, in the condition of prosperity which Canada is to-day enjoying, would it be desirable on the part of the Administration to take any action with respect to the tariff in Canada at the present time which could be regarded as provocative by those across the line who may be interested in seeking to raise the tariff in that country? I say that, with the knowledge that we have before us at the present time, had we done what honorable gentlemen opposite wish us to do, raised the tariff, we would be creating in the minds of the American people the very sentiment which would cause them to raise their tariff higher perhaps than it was ever their intention to raise it. We do not intend to take any action of that provocative character.

BRITISH PREFERENCE

"May I say to my honorable friends opposite in the other corner of the House that, were we to-day to take a step along the lines of increasing the British preference to a greater degree than exists at the present time, that step also might be misconstrued, for we know that there are people on the other side of the line who are just as anxious to be troublemakers as certain people on this side of the line are to misrepresent matters, and we have to take human nature as it is and deal with it as it is. So, facing the situation before us, we have always followed the policy that we shall follow at all times, and that we have always followed in the past, of dealing with each situation as it arises in the light of the conditions as they exist at the time. That is the position which this Government took when we came into charge of the administration of affairs.

"What did we find? We found the depressed condition that Canada was in. We had before us the record of the honorable gentlemen opposite. Year after year deficits were exhibited in the public accounts. We took the step that was necessary. We put on some extra taxation, so that we could balance the budget and restore public confidence in the finances of this country, and the moment we had restored public confidence and balanced the budget we began to remove taxation and to remove it steadily. We saw that if this country was to prosper, what was needed, above all else, was that the basic industries of the country should be made prosperous. So we dealt with the duties on the implements of production in the great basic industries. Later on we felt that there were other changes that should be made, and all along, year after year, we have consistently followed a policy of dealing with a situation as it exists at the time, hoping always that we might further the prosperity which we have at the present time.

SUBTLE OPPOSITION

"I say that that is exactly what we intend to do with respect to a situation that may arise in the future. Honorable gentlemen opposite have been pretty cunning, very crafty in some of their methods of dealing with situations. This year, perhaps, they have been more subtle than before. They have not wished to refer to the past, and, above all else, they have sought to avert the present, and so they have sought to manufacture—and this is what we have had all through this debate—a discussion with respect to something that may happen next year. The whole of their discussion has been for the most part in the nature of an imaginary tariff wall. They have told us that this and that should be done, not because something is being done at the moment, but because something may be done next year by the United States Government. They have conjured up tariff walls. They have suggested that special sessions of Parliament should be called. They have talked about a red-blooded attitude on the part of Canada. They have chosen their ground well, because if there is one thing above another that honorable gentlemen are good at, it is jingoist pronouncements, more particularly when they relate to the United States. But may I say to my honorable friends opposite, it is not a red-blooded attitude that is needed at the present moment so much as a cool-headed attitude, and a cool-headed attitude is the attitude which this Administration has taken with regard to all tariff matters from the time it came into office, and that is the attitude which we intend to take during the time we are serving the people in the posts which we now occupy.

NO-CONFIDENCE MOTION

"May I quote to the House the two amendments that are before it, and may I make this clear, first of all, that both of them, though they differ so widely, as I have indicated, are alike at least in this particular: that each is in the nature of a want-of-confidence motion in the Administration. The Minister of Finance has asked that the House should have leave to consider ways and means of raising the revenue to carry on the Government of the country. Honorable gentlemen immediately opposite say: 'No, we will not allow this motion to carry; we ask that instead there shall be increased protection.' Honorable gentlemen at the other end of the House say: 'No, we will not permit the House to consider ways and means; we want the Government to go back and consider the question of the British preference'. My honorable friends know, or they ought to know, that if their motion carried the Government would not be able to consider the very question they put before it, for the simple reason that the Government would not be in power and would not have the power to do it. I think that should be understood by my honorable friends when they come to vote on that motion."

Mr. Irvine—Why allow any amendment at all to this budget?

Mr. Mackenzie King — There are times and places for amendments, but the time and place for an amendment of this kind is not on the budget.

PROTECTIONIST ARGUMENTS

"As I have already said, the Conservative amendment means nothing more than increased protection. It is interesting to notice what has happened with respect to honorable gentlemen opposite on the question of the tariff. During the election of 1921 and the election of 1925 and the election of 1926 we heard from honorable gentlemen opposite endless talk about the necessity for increased protection. That was openly and avowedly the policy of honorable gentlemen opposite—increased protection. Wherever they went they talked about the need of increased protection. If they went into a mining district, it was the mining industry that needed protection. If they went into a manufacturing centre, it was the manufacturing industry that needed protection. If they went into a farming district, it was some branch of agriculture or horticulture that needed protection. Wherever they went they always preached protection in relation to the particular industries of that locality. But they did not succeed in 1921, and did not succeed in 1925, and they got a knockout blow in 1926, with the result that immediately afterward they dropped the word protection completely. They had their convention at Winnipeg, and they drew up their tariff programme, but you can search from one end to the other of the platform and you will not find protection in the whole of it; there is no mention of it. Then when they came into the House they moved their first amendment, and there was not one word of protection in the whole of it. It was disguised, surely. It reminds one of something that Mr. Asquith said in the last speech which he made as Leader of the Liberal Party in England, in reviewing the work which the Liberal Party had accomplished. He referred to an election that had taken place in Great Britain in 1906, I think it was, when the forces of protection were so completely routed that, Mr. Asquith said, they received a knockout blow, and thereafter the word protection never raised its head but went creeping about under modest and belittling pseudonyms.

SHELTERED WORDS

"That is exactly what honorable gentlemen opposite have been doing here with respect to the word 'protection'. It has not even the merit of originality; it comes along as a kind of belated imitation of an Old Country pseudonym. In the Old Country they talked of tariff reform, then of safeguarding. Look at this resolution. They have got here the word 'safeguarding' in front of the word that relates to protection, sort of to shelter it; and they do not even use the word 'protection', but the word 'protecting', afraid to come out with the substantive and resorting to the participle as a means of declaring their intention. Let me read the resolution: "This House regrets that the financial proposals of the Government make no provision for reasonably safeguarding and protecting'—'safeguarding' comes first and then this participle, 'protecting'—'the interests of those engaged in agricultural pursuits or in industrial employment'.

CAUTIOUS MR. BENNETT

"Last season my honorable friend was careful to avoid any use, even of the word 'protecting'. He told all his followers not to use it, and you can look through their speeches to see how they struggled against its employment, but here and there a few broke loose. But after the session was over my honorable friend found the forces around him were too strong, and so he went down to the Eastern Townships, where he had a chance to talk to the vegetable growers alongside the American border. There he used the word 'protection', and received applause, and he thought the whole community was behind him. He proceeded to the Maritime Provinces, and, thinking to kill two birds with one stone, he decided to preach protection and so help his friends in the Provincial Government at the pending election. From every parish pump, from every parish wharf he preached protection. With what result? Why, the Provincial Government was nearly defeated. My honorable friends then went back to the west, where he was told he had been talking too much protection. Now, torn between two extremes, he puts forward this resolution, not employing the word 'protection', but the word 'protecting', placing it after, and, as it were, sheltering it, with the word 'safeguarding'. That is the position my honorable friend is now compelled to take."

Mr. Bennett—That is better than domination by Washington.

Mr. Mackenzie King—That is the position to which honorable gentlemen opposite have been reduced.

CANADA LEADS EMPIRE

"Now may I say to my honorable friends at the other end with regard to their particular resolution, as they well know, the British preference has been a part of the policy of the Liberal Party from the days when Sir Wilfrid Laurier introduced the first measure of British preference. This Dominion of Canada has led the Empire in the matter of the British preference; and the Liberal Party has led Canada. Year after year we have considered carefully wherein we could extend and increase the British preference. And may I say to my honorable friends, we we intend to do that from this time onward. I want no misunderstanding as to why we have to reject the resolution. It is not because we are not strongly in favor of the British preference. It is not because we have not considered it. We have made some increase in the British preference in the present budget. But I have to tell my honorable friends frankly and firmly, and I think they must in their hearts agree with me, that there are strong reasons why, in this session above all sessions, we should do as little as possible to change the tariff. I think that is the wisest course we can pursue. Next session we will, as I have already said, deal with the situation as we find it at that particular time. And we will, I think, in a few brief words, make very clear what the position of the Government is in this matter. Let me read what the Minister of Finance said, emphasizing that his words express the policy of the Government as a whole:

"AS NECESSITY ARISES"

"'In so far as we have a finance problem, our task would appear to be that of readjusting, as necessity arises, our customs tariff schedules to meet new conditions, other things being equal, of favoring those countries which favor our products'."

Mr. Edwards (Frontenac)—Is that a policy or a chart?

Mr. Mackenzie King — It is both. Then after a reference to the tariff changes submitted to-day the statement is made in regard to the Advisory Board on Tariff and Taxation.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, I say that nothing could be clearer, nothing could be more sensible than the statement of policy made there by the Minister of Finance. We will be guided in the future as we have been in the past by expert advice. We will study carefully the situation as it is and proceed in the light of conditions as we find them. What we may do may not wholly please honorable gentlemen opposite, but I venture to say it will satisfy the country.

"NO GREATER MISFORTUNE"

"I want to make this further position clear. Of late there has been brought into the discussion of the possible adjustments of the tariff references to the St. Lawrence waterway. Representations have been made to the effect that in some way or other these two questions are being discussed together, that the one question is being made to relate in some measure to the other. May I say that I can conceive of no greater misfortune than that the question of the St. Lawrence waterway should be mixed up in any way with the question of the tariff of this country, or that the question of the tariff of Canada should in any way be related to the question of the development of the St. Lawrence."

Mr. Cahan—Will the Prime Minister allow a question?

Mr. Mackenzie King—With pleasure.

Mr. Cahan—Did he not himself suggest that in his correspondence with the United States?

ENCOURAGE GOOD-WILL

Mr. Mackenzie King—I thought my honorable friend would interrupt me at this stage, so I brought the correspondence with me. I think it illustrates exactly what I was about to say when my honorable friends interrupted. When it comes to the working out of any international problem, the success or the failure of the negotiations will depend more than anything else on the atmosphere of trust and of confidence and of good-will that exists between the peoples who are interested in the particular transaction. I submit that to that extent what may develop out of discussions or one discussion may come to have a bearing on the solution of other questions. For that reason I think it all-important that with respect to the tariff as with respect to everything else we should at all times seek to conduct our discussions so as not to create an atmosphere that is hostile, but as far as we can to preserve an atmosphere of good-will between this country and our neighbors to the south. Now then, on January 31, 1928, a communication was addressed to the United States Government by our Minister at Washington, which communication was based on a communication sent by the present Government, and in that communication reference was made to the tariff; but it was made in what way?

"In a way which illustrates the truth of what I have been saying—the wisdom of not having steps taken with respect to one policy or one question which possibly might prejudice the solution of another question. Now here is the statement to which my honorable friends refers. It is the only statement in all the correspondence between this Government and the United States. Let me read it.

FARMERS' INTEREST

"Just before doing so, may I point this out: The United States had intimated to us that they felt their Western farmers were much interested in the St. Lawrence waterways, and they were hoping that our people would be equally interested, as perhaps they are. And this was what was stated in reply:

"'It will therefore be observed that the transportation situation in the two countries is not identical as to available facilities, extent of use or rates, and that the economic handicap to which you referred in your note of April 13 appeared to have more application to United States than Canadian conditions. In this connection, it may be said that Canadian agriculture is more directly affected by the restrictions on the importation of Canadian farm products which have been imposed by the United States in recent years, with the object, it is understood, of assisting agriculture in those Western States which would share so largely in the benefits of the proposed St. Lawrence waterways. This situation, and the effects upon the Maritime sections of Canada of United States duties on the products of the fisheries, are among the factors which have contributed to bringing it about that public opinion in Canada has not so clearly crystallized in favor of the waterway project as appears to be the case in the United States.'

"In other words, this simply emphasizes what I would seek to emphasize to-day. I think it is advisable, so far as our international relations are concerned, that those who are involved should have at heart, at all times, the possible effect of any action of one country upon the other with which it may have any dealings."

CONSERVATIVES UNCONVINCED

Mr. Cahan—Is not the quotation which the Prime Minister has just read, and which appeared in the press of the United States the basis of their comments to which my right honorable friend as referred as to mixing of the St. Lawrence waterway and tariff questions?

Mr. King—I do not think so.

Mr. Bennett—Absolutely.

Mr. King—Well, they have an explanation now which, perhaps, will help to correct it. But I repeat, and I do not think this can be made too clear, that, so far as the United States tariff is concerned, that is a matter which the Government of that country must settle for itself in accordance with its own interests. And the United States will be the first to recognize, if in any action they take our trade with them is adversely affected, that it is our duty and our right, and will be and should be our policy, to see that we make such arrangements with respect to our tariff as will further our interests in our own way. And having said that, may I again make clear what I wish above all else to make clear, not only in this connection, but in all others. Living as we do beside the United States, as near neighbors, it is in the interests alike of the United States and of this country, and in the larger interests of the British Empire, that, so far as we can, with respect to all our relations, we carry them out in a spirit which will help to advance mutual interests rather than take a step in the opposite direction.

"I have spoken at greater length than I had intended, and I would conclude by saying this: I hope honorable members will feel that, with respect to the amendments before the House at the present time, neither of them is in the national interests, but that it is in the interests of the country to allow the Government to continue to carry out the policies which have made for the increased prosperity which we enjoy to-day. Let us get on with the business of this session so we can come to Parliament again at another session and present a further record of prosperity and bring in another budget which will disclose to the people of Canada further reduction in public debt and another surplus rather than a deficit with a further reduction in taxation."

TO INVESTIGATE POLICE CLASHES

Lindley Crease, K.C., Named Commissioner in Kelowna Dispute

With the costs charged to the city of Kelowna the Government has ordered an investigation of the clash between the Provincial police and the city police when the former, in company with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, took action against Chinese opium peddles in Kelowna.

It has been alleged by Provincial Constable F. Corrigan that the Kelowna police not only failed to cooperate but put obstacles in the way of other police working on the case.

Lindley Crease, K.C., of Victoria has been named commissioner.

Declares Area Breeding Ground For "Boy Bandits"

That the Fairfield district in the neighborhood of "Five Points" was a "breeding ground for boy bandits" was the assertion of L. Willis, Moss Street, in a letter read before the board of police commissioners yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Willis claimed that there was a gang of youths there who made a regular nuisance of themselves and in view of the fact that much had been said about "boy bandits" recently, he felt that some action should be taken to suppress the youthful energy.

The matter was referred to the Chief of Police.

TRAFFIC AIDS ARE ADOPTED

"U" Turns on Broad Street to Be Eliminated, Commission Decides

"Stop and Go" Signs to Come Into Effect at End of This Month

Elimination of "U" turns at the corners of Fort and Broad and View and Broad Streets, deletion of the arterial highway regulation on Douglas Street in its relation to Fisgard and Cormorant Streets and the building of a sidewalk along the north side of Fort Street east of the Oak Bay junction, were among the traffic improvements approved by the police commission yesterday afternoon to go for recommendation to the City Council.

Chief Fry informed the commission that "stop and go" signs would be in operation at the intersections of Fort, View and Yates Streets on Douglas and at Fort and Government by the end of the month. He stressed the need for elimination of left turns and "U" turns in connection with the operation of these signs.

NO "U" TURNS

After considerable discussion on this point the commission decided, on the motion of Commissioner W. E. Staneland, that "U" turns by automobiles should be eliminated at the intersections of Fort and Broad and View and Broad Streets.

With regard to Oak Bay Junction, Mr. Staneland drew attention to the fact that this was a very dangerous intersection for traffic, a fatal accident having recently occurred there. He pointed out that on the south side of Fort, east of the junction, there was a graveled section and no sidewalk, making this area unsafe for pedestrians. Installation of a sidewalk on this section was therefore recommended.

ARTERIAL FOR DOUGLAS

Alteration of the arterial highway by-law to make Douglas Street an arterial, north of Fisgard Street to the city limits, was adopted with no discussion.

Other traffic aids which will be shortly put in force are: strict enforcement of the one-hour parking regulation; moving of prohibited parking area on Fort at Broad westward twenty feet in order that street cars will not block the pedestrian area on the roadway, and the placing of traffic guides or lights in the centre of the Menzies-Belleville intersection.

A list of traffic aids suggested by the Automobile Club of British Columbia was considered by the commission and turned over to the Chief.

WORKERS SEEK MINIMUM WAGE

Several Applications to Come Under New Act Have Been Filed

An opportunity to see how effective the new Minimum Wage Act passed at the last session of the Legislature will be when placed in operation may be provided as soon as the Government sets the necessary machinery in motion.

British Columbia is at present in the position of having a Minimum Wage Act on the statute books and no board to operate, the old board being swept out of the new act which drew vigorous criticism during the session from Liberal members and the only Labor member of the House who eventually succeeded in getting the act slightly strengthened, but still left at the stage where they classed it as milk and water legislation.

APPLICATIONS FILED

While there are no industries working under a minimum wage law for men in B.C. now, as the result of the Federal court's ruling the old act ultra vires, several applications have been received from individuals at different points in the Province for the industries in which they are employed to be made the subject of an investigation with a view to establishing a minimum wage scale. The new act calls for an investigation upon the request of individual workers. The number of these applications was not revealed at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

With the new board kept as de by legislation no chairman or new board as called for by the recent legislation has yet been named.

A VERY CHARMING AND IDEALLY SITUATED VICTORIA SUBURBAN WATERFRONT HOME

WITHIN AN EASY HALF HOUR'S RUN from Victoria brings you to the gates of one of the most beautiful and ideally situated homes in the Dominion of Canada.

There are 500 feet of waterfront and in the neighborhood of twelve acres of grounds.

The land is all under cultivation, except for a few acres purposely left in its natural state. The cultivated portion includes lawns, drives, walks, flower beds of every description, fruits and small fruits, shade trees, tennis court, bowling green, croquet lawns, fountains and rock beds intermingling; the water supply for the fountains, etc., is supplied by water wheel powered by a running stream, which twists and curves gracefully through and about the artistically designed grounds. Duck ponds and also a part of the stream dammed to afford a fish pool and to give additional power for outside utilities.

Built in an attractive portion of these grounds are Summer houses, a stone and cement garage with two extra rooms attached, also gardeners' dwellings.

The dwelling itself, designed by a well-known artist and built of chipped and unchipped stone, is of red tiled roofing and stucco fillings. The number of rooms is twelve. Rooms are all finished in hardwood floors of the finest quality and oak paneling to match. Huge French windows opening out into a beautiful sunroom and veranda having all imaginable creepers and flowers, also fish pool and fountain. Bedrooms tastily arranged and each with its separate built-in bathroom and showers.

Electrically heated by an electric oil heater placed in a large and exceptionally fine cement basement.

This magnificent country home must be inspected to gain an adequate idea of its beauty and exclusiveness.

Price and terms will be promptly furnished to any responsible party.

Dublin, April 18.—A statement that the Fianna Fail, political party of Eamonn de Valera, had in its possession firearms and ammunition dumps was made in the Dail last night by Fitzgerald Kenny Minister of Justice.

In aswer to a question the Minister admitted a detective posing as Sean McGuinness, attached to the self-styled Irish Republican Army, had gained the confidence of the Finna Fail leader and R. O'Donnell and other party members. From them he had learned the plans of their organization and of arms and ammunition at their disposal, later giving his information to the Government.

SAANICH TAX RATE WILL BE SET TO-NIGHT

Reeve Crouch Says No Need of Increase, Councillors Think There Is

Deputations Will Urge Road Improvements and Trustees Seek More Money

Whether the tax rate in Saanich will be increased this year will be decided this evening by the Saanich Council. The council is divided on the question.

Reeve Crouch advocates retention of the rate at thirty mills, unchanged from the levy imposed for several years past. It is his opinion that this can be achieved by a small reduction in the roads maintenance appropriation for each ward, to be supplemented in the Fall when the results of the year's financing are known.

It is the opinion of Councillor William Stubbs that this year will require larger instead of smaller roads maintenance costs. Nearly all the highways of Saanich suffered great frost damage during the Winter months, which will have to be made good in addition to the normal maintenance work of the wards.

MORE FOR SCHOOLS

In addition, the school board will this evening ask the council to approve larger general estimates than were filed some weeks ago. The increase sought is $14,500, to cover the cost of establishing high school classes at Tolmie School.

Immediate improvement of Verdier Avenue will be urged upon the council this evening by a deputation from the Saanich Board of Trade and a supporting delegation from the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

The poor condition of a number of other main highways will also be pointed out to the council.

GOVERNOR VISITS VANCOUVER SCHOOL

Vancouver, April 18.—Lord and Lady Willingdon spent a busy forenoon here. They had an early breakfast and, after attending to personal correspondence, they were driven to Christ Church Cathedral, where they saw the replica of the war memorial at Westminster Abbey and Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris to the Million Dead.

From the Cathedral the party went to visit the Canadian Memorial Church. The party then visited the Vancouver Technical School. Both the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon are interested in the subject of technical education and they spent an hour in the institution. Principal J. G. Lister showed them over the school and explained the curricula, after which the students assembled in the auditorium. The visitors were received by members of the school board and J. S. Gordon, municipal school inspector. The school choir greeted them with musical honors. Lord Willingdon addressed the assembly.

To-night the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon will be the guests of Major-General and Mrs. J. W. Stewart, at a dinner and a dance.

TRADE IMPROVEMENT MADE FOUNDATION OF BALDWIN'S CAMPAIGN

may judge us by this—that we do not promise more than we can perform."

Replying to a vote of thanks which expressed the firm conviction that the Conservative Party under his leadership would again achieve victory, Premier Baldwin said:

"The battle has now begun. Noise and posters count for a lot in elections, but the two things that count for most are unity and faith, and we have both."

London, April 18 — Premier Stanley Baldwin, speaking before a big "family party" of Conservatives in the Drury Lane Theatre here to-day, outlined the policies on which the Conservative Party will seek renewal in office at the general election in Great Britain, May 30. In the long-expected pronouncement he defended his own administration and belittled the attacks of Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George and Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald.

PERFORMERS AND PROGRAMME

The Prime Minister started his speech with a sharp crack at the Liberal Party, which Mr. Lloyd George, its leader, had characterized as a "party of promise."

"I accept that and am not a competitor. We are a party of performers," he said, adding it was no new thing for a party of performers to be charged with an inadequate programme.

Mr. Baldwin dwelt on the merits of a credit policy toward betterment, which he said the Conservatives had been pursuing. He noted the creation of "a new industrial atmosphere," through closer co-operation of British trade, manufacturing and financial leaders.

He asserted the nation was recovering its competitive power and that its trade was definitely improving.

He characterized "safeguarding" as "a most valuable agency in producing permanent employment—so valuable that we are going to continue it."

NEW INDUSTRIAL ATMOSPHERE

Premier Baldwin proceeded to discuss the unemployment problem, but declared he intended to say nothing about the general strike of 1926, to which Mr. Churchill referred so frequently in the budget speech. The Prime Minister spoke of the new atmosphere in industry which had put fresh life into British industrialists "in tackling reorganization and enabling us to recover our competitive power."

"You will find a great excess of the unemployment existing now over the pre-war period is due to the loss of foreign markets and what I hope is only a temporary cessation of emigration," he said. "We are trying by arrangements with the Dominion Governments to make it easier for men and women to go to the Dominions. We are trying by transference to get men from the black spots into districts where they can get work. Industry, if it is to survive, has to go far yet in the way of being humanized."

DEBT QUESTION

London, April 18 (By Thomas Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)—If the 2,000 Conservative delegates from all parts of the country who assembled in the Drury Lane Theatre here to-day to hear Premier Stanley Baldwin make his announcement on the Conservative programme in the general election campaign, expected the Prime Minister to reply in any direct and unmistakable form to Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden's speech in the House of Commons Tuesday, and to comment on the debate in the House last evening, they were profoundly disappointed. They might have been expecting something after the gossip of the possibility of the Allied War debts to Britain being made an election issue.

The Prime Minister was surrounded on the stage by practically all the members of his Cabinet, who no doubt knew well beforehand that he proposed to voice no rousing sentimetns on Allied War indebtedness.

The regular meeting of the Victoria order of Eagles, Aerie No. 12, was held last evening at the Government Street headquarters, with President C. A. Jasper in the chair. Grand Organizer T. Laurie of the Vancouver Aerie addressed the meeting, which was well attended.

ROTARY TOLD YOUNG CHOIRS DO FINE WORK

P. L. Newcombe, Adjudicator, Praises School Singers; High School Singing Foreseen

Warm praise of the school choirs competing at the Musical Festival was voiced by Rotarian P. L. Newcombe of Calgary, who is one of the adjudicators at the festival, this afternoon in a brief address before the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel.

"The school choirs have been very good, and I have enjoyed their work even more than that of the adult organizations. The school pupils very evidently sang for the enjoyment of it," said Mr. Newcombe.

"The public schools are doing a great and commendable work," he added, regretting that much of the benefit was lost by the break caused by the over-crowded high school curriculum. "There are things taught which are not so important as music. I look for the day when high schools will devote more attention to this course."

LONG LIFE PRESCRIPTION

Wallace S. Terry gave a brief talk on why he went into the drug business. As a prescription for long life he recommended the advice of Sir William Osler: "First, do the day's work the very best one can; second, practice the golden rule towards all, and finally to lay up a store of equanamity which would give one courage in time of trial."

Neil Lamont, discussing his entry into the loganberry wine industry, recalled he had previously been a prohibitionist. "Loganberry Jim from the Yankee side talked to us, we planted, but could not sell the fruit. So very soon everyone was making his own home brew," he said. This situation was solved when the fruitgrowers obtained Government aid for commercial production, which this year will require 700 tons of fruit.

W. A. Jameson gave reasons why Rotarians should attend the district convention at Vancouver. He appealed for a spirit of enthusiasm in the affairs of life.

P. L. Naysmith recalled that his first dollar had been earned as a printer's devil, his duties ranging from getting out and circulating the paper to stealing all the fuel needed by the office.

MANY AT CONFERENCE

T. P. McConnell stated that the convention at Vancouver would be attended by Rotarian International President Thomas Sutton, who has just completed a world tour in the interests of Rotary. Over 1,000 Rotarians are already registered to attend the proceedings, and an enrolment of 2,000 is expected.

Miss Siri Engmann, violinist of the Capitol Theatre, was introduced by Clifford Denham and entertained with a group of numbers, accompanied by Chris Wade.

SIFTON LEAVES BUILDER'S RECORD, STATES PREMIER

"Sir Clifford Sifton exercised a great influence in Western Canada, and became an important factor in the public life of the Dominion. His death removes a Canadian of unusual ability and distinction."

MANITOBA TRIBUTES

Winnipeg, April 18. — Pioneers of Western Canada, men knew Sir Clifford in the early days of the prairies, pay tribute to the achievements of the former Federal Minister of the Interior who died yesterday in New York. In the Manitoba Legislature of which Sir Clifford was once a member, a resolution expressing appreciation of his services and condolence to the family was adopted yesterday.

Stating Sir Clifford was regarded as "one of the ablest representatives Western Canada ever had in the Federal Government," Premier John Bracken moved the resolution. The Premier declared the policies Sir Clifford inaugurated and carried out, more particularly immigration and colonization, "probably had greater influence in the material development of the prairies than those of any other statesman."

LEADERS SPEAK

Group leaders in the Legislature, Liberal, Conservatives and Labor, joined with the Premier in paying tribute. H. A. Robson, K.C., Liberal leader, said Sir Clifford had not only aided in the development of Manitoba, but also in the building up of the provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

Ratepayers Vote On Power Bond By-law

Vernon, April 18.—To safeguard the bonds of the West Canadian Hydro-Electric Corporation the cities of Armstrong, Enderby and Salmon Arm and the municipality of Coldstream will again sumbit the power by-laws to a vote of the electors. As the corporation had not fulfilled the letter of the agreement the municipalities were advised by the inspector of municipalities that a second submission was advisable.

In all instances the first vote taken was overwhelmingly in favor of the by-law.

CONDITIONS SOUND, INFLATION ABSENT, IN CANADA AND U.S., RICHARDSON ASSERTS

CONDITIONS SOUND

Winnipeg, April 18 (By B.C. Bond)—James Richardson to-day issued the following statement: "The action of the Federal Reserve Bank and the high money rates that we have had for some time past have generally unsettled the security markets, and the wisdom of concervative trading is indicated.

"At the same time we are of the opinion that further drastic action by the Federal Reserve Bank is unlikely.

"We have had no commodity inflation and fundamental conditions in Canada and the United States are entirely sound, and there are a number of stocks on the board which we believe can be purchased to-day, and which we believe will show a handsome profit over a period of a few years. Among these we regard International Nickel at around fifty is one of the most attractive."

INTERNOTIONAL PETE TO SPLIT

Sarnia, Ont., April 18—At a special meeting of the shareholders of the International Petroleum Company to-day, endorsation was given to a by-law under which each share of preferred stock of par value of $5 will be converted into two shares of preferred stock of a par value at $2.50, and each share of common stock without par value, both issued and outstanding, into two shares of common stock, without nominal or par value.

DOMINION BRIDGE INCREASES DIVIDEND

Montreal, April 18.—That shareholders will receive full benefit of the wave of prosperity which the company is evidently enjoying, was further evidenced by the action of the board of directors of the Dominion Bridge Company in making another increase in the dividend rate at yesterday's meeting which issued a quarterly dividend of 75 cents per share, payable May 15 to shareholders of record April 30.

CANADIAN WHISKY STOCKS HIT

Montreal, April 18. (By B. C. Bond)—Financial Service to-day says, "Distillery stocks—A considerable amount of switching has been going on from such stocks as Hiram Walker and Canadian Industrial Alcohol, into issues whose outlook is not so obscure. The uncertainty which exists with regard to the probable action of the United States Government for the further restriction of liquor imports into United States, has recently had a paralyzing effect on the market for the stocks of this group, as it is understood that 75 per cent of the Canadian production of alcoholic beverages finds its way into the United States."

Montreal, April 18 (By B.C. Bond)—Massey-Harris is attracting considerable attention in the market just now, a quite substantial buying movement making the issue the second most active in the day's list.

The recently inaugurated $3 annual dividend gives a fine return to purchasers at current levels when consideration is given to the remarkably strong position of the company and its prospects for expansion. Declaration of the above rate can be taken as an indication that shareholders of the company can look forward to a period of growth in business and earnings, for the administration is far too conservative to establish a rate that is not more than warranted by prospects.

Co-ksha is also a strong spot, coming third in volume of sales.

PAPER STOCKS BETTER

Demand for the paper stocks continued to be displayed, giving expression to not only a growing belief that the chief troubles of the industry are being definitely overcome, but also in reflection of a feeling about the street that a number of mergers are possibilities of the near future. A number of groups were suggested as likely about the street, but did not bear the stamp of authority. Abitibi gave a much firmer display here, and was even stronger on the New York board.

Shawinigan Water and Power's engineering department is now erecting a new sixty-mile power transmission line from Quebec to Thetford Mines. Increased line facilities are also being provided for subsidiary companies. Engineers are making progress with the survey of the Upper St. Maurice Valley power development, although locations for the new plants have not yet been decided on. No construction is likely to be started before the first of next year.

NEWSPRINT MERGER COMING

The Montreal Star publishes the following:

"It is reported in well-informed circles in the street that negotiations looking to a strong combination of newsprint companies have been consummated.

"A merger of Canada Power & Paper and Abitibi is mentioned in the gossip. It is believed, however, that a preliminary will be a combination of the Brompton, St. Lawrence and Lake St. John companies. When the merger is completed, it is thought that it will pass to Canada Power & Paper.

"This would represent a large tonnage and leave International Power & Paper and Price Brothers' interests the main holders of the balance of production."

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

Winnipeg, April 18 — Wheat: There was little feature to the wheat market to-day, the main point being that offerings were very light and for this reason the market was able to hold firm. There were two dips of about 1c under last night's close, but this was due to weakness in Chicago, that market breaking 1½c.

The buying was mixed but the volume was light and very little was credited to outside sources, although New York interests took a little at the opening, which possibly was against overnight exports. There was a good shipping demand for cash wheat. No. 3 northern and lower grades being wanted to fill tonnage, which is either waiting at lakehead or on the way up the lakes, however, there is nothing out of the ordinary in the demand at the opening of navigation, in fact, many say it is quieter than usual.

It is said that there will be a good demand for Canadian low grades which are now being released from Winter quarters, as they are comparatively cheap and supplies of these grades that were across the lakes have been pretty well cleaned up. Spreads were ⅛ to ½ better.

The weather map showed good rains in the eastern half of Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Seeding is slow in getting under way in the Canadian West, the soil being too wet, as considerable moisture has been received since April 1. The market turned weak in the last thirty minutes in sympathy with a further break in Chicago, which brought in some back spreading selling here against purchases in Chicago.

Coarse grains: Market was extremely dull to-day and prices were sharply lower throughout. There has been a good demand for oats and barley the past few days, but to-day demand was entirely absent wit hsome reselling of barley by seaboard interests.

Flax: Market was easier in the nearby months due to the general weakness. There was no feature to the market and the demand is thin.

Chicago, April 18.—Bulges in wheat failed to hold to-day and the Washington news was not sufficient to bring in much buying demand. However, there was considerable caution displayed on the selling side on the dips. Export business was fair in Manitobas, with Winnipeg reporting cash wheat one half cent higher.

A little hard Winter wheat was reported worked and Spring wheat is not far out of line. Foreign news was about a standoff and buyers are not disposed to follow advances abroad.

Weather and crop news continued generally favorable.

Argentine shipments were estimated at 5,329,000. Indian crop is said to be a little larger than last year but is not considered much of a success, the berry being small due to drought at filling time.

Primary receipts are the smallest in some time, at 441,000, against 594,000 a year ago, and it is possible the visible supply will show more of a decrease this week than recently.

Prices for wheat are on a comparatively cheap basis and bear features are well known and it is extremely doubtful if any increase in consumption will be caused by a further decline.

Corn was strong for a time, but the persistent selling of wheat affected sentiment adversely and prices reacted in the last hour of the session. However, price declines were small and there was a fairly good class of buying on the setbacks.

Receipts were small here and at outside points as well, with the cash basis steady and sales of 53,000 with a charter for 100,000 bushels corn to Buffalo.

Country offerings light. Argentine reports indicate a moderate export surplus compared to the last two or three years, and the late Spring in Europe is causing some concern.

On its own merit corn has plenty of points of strength, but is affected a good deal by the wheat.

Oats—Receipts continue small compared to a year ago and the cash situation is unchanged. The cash demand is fair and the market shows a steady undertone compared to the other grains. Cash sales were 53,000. Look for good support on setbacks.

VANCOUVER MINING MARKET

By Miller, Court & Co. Ltd.

Miller, Court Over Leased Wires

Vancouver, April 18.—Outside of the oils there was not much activity on the Vancouver Stock Exchange to-day.

Royalite was 5.00 up at 155.00. United sold up at 15.00 again. In sympathy with the strength in Home, A. P. Consolidated was firm, closing up at 3.76-3.78.

In the mining list, Pend Oreille again absorbed most of the attention. The stock was up here to-day from its low levels of yesterday, following the rise earlier in the day in Toronto. Pend Oreille rose here from 6.00 to 6.75. Pend Oreille rights rose from 1.25 yesterday to 1.65 to-day and closed at 1.50-1.75. With the rights, this makes a price of to-day's levels of more than 8.00 for the old stock. Reeves-McDonald to-day held the gain it made from yesterday morning's lows, sold up to 2.45 and closed at 2.25-2.35.

TORONTO MINING MARKET

Over H. E. Hunnings Wire

Toronto, April 18—Arno has been under pressure due to the report that United States interest had dropped their option. Ottawa is said to hold that there were negotiations, but never was an option.

The quarterly report of Dome shows $1,030,842 recovery an increase of $70,000 over the same period of a year ago. Costs are down from $4.05 to $3.78 a ton. The net income of $553,410 means the year dividend was half earned without deprecation provision.

OKALTA STOCKS SOAR; CALMONT HEAVY TRADER

Miller, Court Over Leased Wires

Calgary, April 18—The Okalta stocks sizzled upward to-day on the Calgary Stock Exchange. Okalta common opened up 30.00 a share at 450.00 and went on to a new high at 460.00. Okalta preferred shot up to 475.00 to 525.00.

The market as a whole was quite strong to-day. Home Oil sold at 23.00.

Calmont was the big trader of the session, opening 50 points up at 4.25 and selling up to 4.50, closing at 4.40. This morning's gain was on top of a 65-point gain yesterday. The heavy trading in this stock was a result of the good reports from the directors' meeting here yesterday. It is reported that plans have been completed by the company for the drilling of five new wells, with operations to commence immediately. Rotary outfits will be put in operation at four of the new wells within the next sixty days. Two of these wells will be drilled on the Dallas leases recently acquired by Calmont, and two will be sunk on the Calmont property. It is understood the company will purchase three rotary drilling outfits immediately.

Advance eased off again and sold down to 8.00. This was on the report that the big short interest in the stock had made a private settlement.

East Crest, which is drilling near the Home and Royalite No. 25, and has reached the limestone at 3,848 feet, came in for considerable trading today at 3.25. The Homestead, financed by the same original Home Oil interests, is starting drilling adjacent to the East Crest.

Arrangements have been made to install a pump on Devenish No. 3 well located in the Skiff field southwest of Lethbridge. It is expected that the company will drill the well a few feet deeper into the oil sands in an endeavor to secure a greater flow of crude oil before installing the pump. An official test of the well recently showed a capacity of eighty-five barrels of high grade crude oil per day on the bailer. It was estimated that the capacity of the well should be in the neighborhood of 250 barrels a day on the pump. It is expected that the location of the company's No. 4 well will be announced shortly.

Swedging out of the casing at United No. 4 was proceeding, and though it was stated by an official of the company that the work would take another three or four days it was proceeding smoothly. The casing was evidently not so badly pinched as had been feared.

McDougall-Segur No. 2 has been drilled to about 200 feet in the lime, at which depth it has entered a slightly softer limestone, which is white in color. The gas flow has remained the same.

A by-law passed by directors of Signal Hill Oil Company for the increase of capitalization from $500,000 to $1,000,000 will be considered at a special meeting of shareholders Friday at 10.20 a.m.

A.P. Consolidated will probably drill two wells this year on its acreage in the same section in Turner Valley as the Home properties, A. G. Clarke, secretary-treasurer and managing director, announced.

McLeod No 1 will be shot with nitroglycerine Friday to thrust aside the lost tools, which have caused trouble.

WHITNEY LETTER

By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd

New York, April 18.—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says today:

NEW RALLY TOP

"The expectation was voiced here that during the current week the market would advance to such an extent that the average would be established at the highest point recorded since the March break. This is just what transpired yesterday, and there is no indication that we have seen the top of the rally yet.

"Time money continues to decline, as you were advised it would, short term money now being offered below 9 per cent for the first time in weeks, with the longer dating offered at 8½ per cent, thereby clearly disclosing that the money trend is downward. With mid-months cheques out of the way, call money is likewise declining. Whether the current strength represents merely a sustained rally, or whether it is the inauguration of a move which will carry the market to a new top, I am not prepared to state, and consider it of no great moment since it is the issues in which one makes commitments, and not the general market which is of importance. We are witnessing new high records for a considerable number of those which have been recommended here, and will continue to witness this, irrespective of the general market developments.

"There will be no change in the rediscount rate to-day, and I expect that after the close it will be found that brokers' loans have declined approximately another $100,000,000.

The oils and steels are still the market leaders, but it is not without significance that among the standard issues you will note that the big advances are being recorded in the so-called Morgan issues, this latter point, I believe, is worth noting and worth following as a general market procedure.

COMMENT

"On a number of occasions while Superior Oil wah available below 9 you were advised to buy it. Accumulation has been completed and the advance ready to begin, so if earlier recommendations have not been acted upon, act upon this now.

"Texas Gulf Sulphur has recaptured its record top, thereby inaugurating a new advance use the range of 83-85 to buy the stock if you do not own it.

"I believe our previously mentioned objective of 60 is going to be found to be too conservative as, currently, earnings are running at a rate in excess of $10 per share on the pfd.

"Among the best of the commitments which should be made at the present time in an issue available materially below its top of the year is one which can be made in U.S. Realty and Improvement below $100 a share. Because of earnings and no other reason, I expect Realty to establish a new top for the year at least before its advance is completed.

"The action of American Can, General Electric, U.S. Industrial Alcohol and Montgomery Ward require no comment. Of the issues which were recommended with these and which have not advanced beyond our buying range, would again recommend Cons. Gas, Yellow Truck, Goodyear, Assd. Drygoods, Interboro Rapid Transit, and, of course, Standard Oil of N.J., N.Y. and California, in which new records are anticipated well before the end of this week."

Convertible Bonds Enliven Market

New York, April 18. — Speculative trading in the convertibles as bullish sentiment revived in stocks enlivened the bond market to-day. Save for some demand for junior rails and foreign issues, the rest of the list drifted into a dull period.

After firming up the last few days, with the easing of time money rates, the United States Government securities turned irregular in the early trading, but maintained a steady undertone.

The International Telephone 4½, Anaconda Copper 7s, Atchison 4½s and other recent favorites among the convertibles, moved upward under spirited buying.

In the rail group the heaviest buying converged into the St. Paul adjustment 5s, which improved fractionally. The Seaboard Airline issues were uneven on continuation of speculative activity. Investment buying help Illinois Central and one or two others in this group.

The steels, oils and rubbers held most of the attention in the industrials.

French Republic 7½ gained a point in the foreign division. Other French as well as German and South American loans mirrored further accumulation by investors going outside the domestic group for higher yields.

The Panama Canal is now operating at seventy per cent. of its capacity.

N.Y. Market Gossip

Secretary Wilbur orders that no oil lands within Indian Reservations be leased or permits be issued for prospecting with the exception of Osage lands in Oklahoma, where 25,000 acres annually will be offered for lease.

There was little of interest in the stock market for a few issues, the movement of prices was colorless. Volume was small and the character of trading was more or less professional. The upturn in American Can which advanced five and one-half points, was outstanding. In several issues prices rose because of covering but on the whole the day produced no fixed trend and the average showed a moderate advance.

The market is suffering from an absence of public participation. Those who are in a position to buy stocks are unwilling to test the situation at this time, and many of those who are still holding stocks are selling on rallies, so that there is a pressure of steady liquidation which cuts off upturns, but is not sufficiently heavy to cause sharp losses.

Shipments and sales of the motor vehicles produced by the Chrysler Corporation and Dodge Bros. during the first quarter of 1929, both domestic and export, indicate that the progress of the last several years is being maintained.

Production of crude lead in the United States and Mexico amounted to 79,790 tons in March, as against 71,659 tons in February and 82,330 tons in January, according to the American Bureau of Metal Statistics.

New York, April 18.—General Electric should offer good trading profits as the stock has of late displayed stubborn resistance during the selling waves and easily recovered whenever buying developed. On the basis of its position in the industry General Electric will be able to retain its levels even if no definite turn in the market takes place. Any time a buying movement develops, General Electric can easly gain from eight to ten points. We recommend a trading position in this issue.

Calumet and Hecla came within reach of the low of the year on the announcement that copper prices have been reduced once more. It is believed that after some fluctuations copper will be stabilized between sixteen and seventeen cents per pound. These levels are not particularly profitable for the high cost producers. CAH is one of them, and will therefore show declining earnings later in the year. Of course, the earnings for the first half of 1929 will be highly satisfactory but the more distant future does not appear as good. A little while ago, in analyzing the copper stocks, we recommended disposing of holdings of all high cost producers. CAH has since then declined considerably and a technical recovery can be looked for. Such recovery should be utilized for selling CAH.

Prince Rupert, April 18.—G. H. Khole and G. R. Henderson, Montreal engineers, of the Power Corporation of Canada, arrived here to-day. They will make examinations which will lead to selection of a waterpower site for hydro-electric development near here.

MARKET UP AGAIN; BROKERS' LOANS OFF $2,000,000 FOR WEEK

New York, April 18 (By B.C. Bond)—Brokers' loans for the week show a decrease of $2,000,000, according to the official total issued this afternoon.

At the close of the market to-day the Dow Jones averages of 30 industrials stood at 311-87, up 1.96 points for the day, and of 20 rails at 150.79, up .54 points.

New York, April 18 (By B.C. Bond.)—After its quiet spell of the last couple of weeks, which gave signs yesterday of culminating when in the latter part of the session the industrial averages advanced over five points, the stock market to-day opened with a rush, which swept practically the whole list forward with a list of considerable proportions of new highs.

Sales in the first hour to-day ran to 621,600 shares, which was just about twice the volume of sales for the first hour yesterday. Total sales to-day amounted to 3,758,000.

Money dropped from 8 to 7½ per cent.

Among the new high recorded were Yellow Truck at 49¼, Industrial Alcohol at 160, Skelly Oil at 53¾, Union Oil at 54½, American Can at 139¾, Bethlehem Steel at 115¾, Stewart Warner at 71, Pan American B at 63⅛, Texas Gulf Sulphur at 85¼.

The only soft feature on the board was Graham-Paige, which slumped from 41 to a new low for the year at 37. Issue of new stock was ascribed as the reason for the slump in this.

Market interests who have recently been optimistic on the oil shares were encouraged by the latest figures of production from the American Petroleum Institute showing a total of 2,615,959 barrels for the week ended April 13, a decrase of 42,050 barrels from the preceding week. These optimists point out that if the output is dropping at this time when consumption would begin to reflect the normal Spring increase, the situation appears to be correcting itself in a satisfactory manner. They expect this to be reflected in the oil shares when the general market becomes more favorable.

Wall Street believes that a recapitalization of Baldwin is not far away, and is probable that after this step has been taken there will be a revival of the discussion of a large industrial merger to include Baldwin, Westinghouse Electric, Westinghouse Airbrake, American Steel Foundries and Standard Steel Car. It is known that such plans were under consideration by the leading interests in some of these companies last year, and the matter may be brought to a head before the end of 1929.

Montgomery Ward has been acting much better in recent sessions, and it is known that important market interests who were active in the old stock during its big advance have again been taking a long position in the stock.

While activity in the aviation stocks has been greatly curtailed through the period of market unsettlement, nevertheless there has been a substantial under-the-surface demand for these issues, based on the general theory that the industry will continue through 1929 the large gains in output and earnings which featured 1928. In an expansion period of a comparatively new industry it is naturally difficult to select from a broad list, issues which promise to be permanent leaders, and also to obtain proper diversification. North American Aviation is said to offer an attractive solution. This company was organized last year by C. M. Keys and associates for the purpose of holding, buying, selling and trading in securities of aviation companies, foreign as well as domestic. The corporation has unrestricted power to buy and sell, but the primary purpose is to make more or less permanent investments in aviation companies, both through the medium of established organizations and by helping to finance new companies. The management represents leaders in the aviation field and shares of a holder of North American Aviation will represent a diversified cross-section of the whole aviation industry.

Stewart Warner is a definitely attractive stock with a cash dividend rate of $3.50, and in addition directors have announced four quarterly declarations of 2 per cent each, payable in common stock. Earnings are reported at the rate of $7 on present stock.

New York, April 18 (By Bliss)—The stock generally maintained a strong tone, with some easing off in the prices just before the close. Call money renewed at 8 per cent and later was obtained at 7½ per cent. The feature of the early morning was Bethlehem Steel, which went into new high ground on large turnover. The excellent first quarter earnings statements of the companies like Youngstown Sheet and Tube and Republic Iron and Steel came up to expectations and indicated to the street that Bethlehem Steel figures when published would probably meet the optimistic predictions.

While the oils were fairly steady they did not improve their market positions materially and more comment was heard to the effect that while the outlook for the petroleum industry seems fundamentally sound, the oils are not in the main consolidating their positions in new high ground. Skelly and Pan American Pete B seemed to have the most aggressive market sponsorship. Large floor operations were again said to be active on the buying side of particular favorites.

American Can continued to give perhaps the best demonstration among the can issues. Copper metal remained at 18 cents, but while the copper shares have borrowed relative steadiness from stabilization of the metal price, they are plainly lacking in the sponsorship which was a feature of their market action a few weeks ago.

U.S. Industrial Alcohol reached its highest level since 1919 on reports that present earnings trend is most satisfactory. Texas Gulf reflected accumulation by reaching a new high on the present move. Buying is said to be coming from interests intimately connected with the company affairs.

New Wool Marketing Plans in Great Britain

London, April 18 (Canadian Press)—The National Farmers' Union of Great Britain has appointed a standing subcommittee to deal with the problems of wool marketing.

This is the result of the recent conference of members from all parts of the country interested in the marketing of wool, which has now become a matter of such importance to the farmers that a special committee has been found necessary to deal with it exclusively. This committee, which will maintain close contact with all the interests concerned, has as its chairman J. Quested, an authority on the subject, who has been specially co-opted to act in that capacity.

Other members of this new committee are the chairman and vice-chairman of the livestock and wool committee, and Messrs. Eady, Maddy, T. Williams, and J. R. Wood.

"We are always expending the machinery of our organization whenever the opportunity and the need arise," said an official of the Union, "and we believe a standing committee on wool marketing will be a very useful addition to our activities."

YOUTH, JOBLESS AND BROKE, FINDS $1,000,000 CHEQUE AND RETURNS IT TO BANK

New York, April 17.—Charles J. Schlunsen, an adjuster employed by the National Surety Company, told the following story to a reporter for The World. Pynchon and Company, brokers, of 111 Broadway, corroborated Mr. Schlunsen.

James Duckett, twenty-two, headed out from his home in Indianapolis, and bummed his way to New York, where he hoped to get a job on a ship sailing to foreign parts. New York looked formidable, pretty cold, and the Bowery Mission was no home, sweet home. So it was a fairly cheerless young man who buttoned his ancient raincoat about him, pulled his veteran hat down over a peaked face and set out yesterday morning to see New York and get a job.

But luck was lying at Broadway and Cedar Street in the form of a $1,000,000 cheque. Mr. Schlunsen says. The cheque was made payable by Phychon and Company to the Hanover National Bank. A messenger had dropped it. Young Duckett picked it up and held it in trembling hands, stunned by the figures he read on it. Then he decided to take it where the messenger was supposed to carry it.

At the Hanover National a guard was detailed to accompany him to Pynchon and Company. Mr. Schlunsen was called in and soon the boy who had spent the night at the Bowery Mission was meeting executives, receiving congratulations, pocketing a $20 reward and setting off with Mr. Schlunsen in quest of a job.

Down to the United Fruit Lines piers they went. Soon Duckett was talking to John Haskins of the United Fruit Lines about that job sailing for foreign parts. This morning at 7 o'clock young Duckett appeared to complete arrangements with the United Fruit Lines. The Calamares of that line is sailing for South America and if the luck Duckett discovered yesterday is still riding, the Calamares may have a sailor from Indianapolis aboard.

Market Moves

Exclusive Over B.C. Bond Leased Wire

New York, April 18.—Our prediction that the dividend basis of Oppenheim Collins would be revised upward materialized yesterday when the company announced a $1 increase in the current rate. The new rate is $5 per share, thus offering a yield of slightly under six per cent at the current price. There are very few mercantile issues obtainable which bring a return equal to that of OPS. The change in the rate is due to the company's excellent results of operations for the year and its good future prospects. The sales for the six months ended January 31 totaled $10,753,000, which is an increase of over $100,000 over the same period for a year earlier. The earnings per share were slightly lower, owing to the increase in the number of shares outstanding, but even at that the stock sells at an attractive ratio to the earnings of this company. For the six months ended January 31 OPS reported a net of $4.30 per share. Of course, these months are the most profitable. The outlook for this season is very satisfactory, and a substantial increase in earnings can be looked for. Now that the yield is attractive, the stock should be bought for a long term holding.

Atlantic Refining recorded small gains during the recent recovery in the oil group. The reasons are well known. AFI has recently granted rights to subscribe to new stock at $40 per share. These rights increase the total amount of stock outstanding and it will take some time before the increased floating supply will be absorbed. Considering the situation in the oil industry as a whole, and that of AFI in particular, we believe that the shares will be absorbed within a short time and this will be followed by a substantial rise in the stock. Under ordinary circumstances a new issue retards the advance for at least a month after the rights expire. In the case of AFI the process should be of short duration. We believe that even before AFI rights are stricken off the list, an advance in the stock will be recorded. We recommend purchases.

The heavy demand for Postum during the last few days indicates that a definite turn in the market for this issue has taken place. Owing to the steady expansions of the company Postum has repeatedly increased the amount of stock outstanding and, as is usual in such cases, the floating supply increased heavily, preventing an advance for the stock. During the last few days large block transactions have taken place at rising levels, and this appears to us as being indicative of investment buying. Postum has long been a favorite with some investment trusts and there is no doubt that the recent price levels made the stock attractive for a long term holding. The position of this company is well known and under improved market conditions the stock should show appreciation in value. It may not offer large profits immediately, but accumulations should pay in the not very distant future.

American Can lost but little during the latest reactionary waves, and the moment pressure abated yesterday it once more moved upward rapidly. The stock should show good gains in the near future, as the object of those behind this issue is to bring it to about $45. Its ability to resist pressure indicates that the market for this stock is in strong hands and [illegible] high. We re[illegible]

Varied Questions For Policemen

London, April 18—Viscount Byng of Vimy, chief commissioner of Metropolitan Police, presiding at the annual meeting of the Police Seaside Home at Hove, related the following story:

"While a police constable was standing on point duty at the Marble Arch an aeroplane passed overhead. Three people came to him and asked him what it was. Four people wanted to know where it came from. Four people

And the first sip will convince you it is best.

"LOVE IS OF THE VALLEY"

By DAVID LYALL

"Oh, I believe in you all right, Jimmy; don't think anything but that! Only we'll be aged and grey before anything happens. Don't you think now we'd better keep ourselves free?"

Jimmy presented a picture of complete distress and dour determination.

'Well, anyway, don't look as if the end of all things had come! If it will do you any good I'll promise to marry you some day. I really like you enough for that, Jimmy. It's only prudence speaking, and if somebody hasn't got prudence in the matrimonial venture what becomes of the poor wee ship?"

"It comes into harbor all right," cried Jimmy, for whom the sun shone again, and there being nobody in sight but one or two stray seagulls eyeing them solemnly from the crest of the incoming wave he took her to his heart. She was ready to be petted and made much of it; it was a new sensation; but there was not in her eyes the melting tenderness which proclaims the surrender of a woman's heart, and promises loyalty against every assault of fate. Jimmy Grier, poor, pround, ambitious, determined to succeed for love's sake, had gotten the promise he desired, and thrown everything else to the wind.

But promise and fulfilment are two different things.

"We'll keep it dark, Jimmy," said Ida, as they prepared to go from their trysting place. "Very, very dark! We'll get into trouble if we don't. Besides I should hate to have our secret known yet. Let us keep it to ourselves."

"I don't feel like that. I want to get upon the housetops and proclaim my good luck."

"That would be quite fatal, my child. No, no; we'll just go on working quietly, me at home and you in Glasgow until the time comes."

"But you'll write!" he cried jealously. "Once a week or maybe twice; I'll be writing every day."

"No you won't; think of the cost of stamps! Once a week only."

"And you'll be true to me, darling; you won't ever forget?" he asked, standing still in the middle of the wrack of the little beach and suddenly facing her.

"Oh, yes; don't look like that, Jimmy Grier! Would you murder me if I didn't?"

"There's no saying," he said with a queer break in his voice as he stooped to take his first lover's toll of her lips.

CHAPTER XI

Linnorie woods in Spring! Could there be a more winsome, enchanting spot? Critics called them straggling, pointing to the absence of fine timber, of stately spreading beech or elm of which others boasted, but Linnorie had a tender, an intimate charm known only, because revealed only, to the understanding. The modest park melted into the Linnorie woods, which then spread sparsely up the sloping hills which sheltered the house from some of the winds that blew. They offered cover to the wild things that had never been hunted in them, and all the flowers that grow in solitary places found their way, sooner or later, wafted on winnowing and discerning winds to their appointed place.

In Spring, then, the Linnorie woods were carpeted with the mosaic of those little tender blooms which are nature's first nurslings, and have no marrow. Monica Brodie, wandering delightedly along the woodland ways, noted every fresh clump of primrose or violet. Sometimes she stooped and laid her face close to them, to inhale their fragrance, and perhaps hearken for the soft beat of nature's heart. She was a gentle little thing, rather dark and elf-like, a disappointment to the mother whose ambitions were large and inclined to showiness. Linnorie had disappointed Mrs. Brodie chiefly because she found that the roots of the Herons were ineradicable, but Monica loved every stick and stone of the old house, revelled in its traditions and its memories, and bore no ill-will at all nor yet cherished any jealousy of the old stock.

A simple, pure-minded, solitary child, she had just returned from two months' sojourn on the south coast, where her mother had sought distinction from the tragic upheaval, and some escape from censorious tongues. They had returned hastily only the previous evening, summoned by telegram, announcing John's arrival in London, whence he would travel to Scotland in due course. Everything had waited for this arrival which would mark an epoch in their family life.

April airs were abroad, and now and again the sighing winds were punctuated by the soft appealing cry of the lambs which had striven sturdily through one of the smellest marches on record.

For a solid month the earth had been in the grip of frost and snow, and when it was removed almost in a night by the soft caress of the west wind, the waiting Spring sprang to life and action in hot haste to comfort the eyes and hearts weary of the long Winter. The miracle of Spring, each year renewed so that seedtime and harvest may not fail had been thus more pronounced than usual. Monica revelled in it. Her head was bare and her short elk-life locks which gave to her piquant little face an odd pathetic young boyish look, her short skirts and serviceable brogues encasing the neatest of feet, the thick woollen coat opens at the neck to let the wind play there, all spoke of her love of the outdoor life, and her kinship with it. Monica's only care for her complexion was to turn it to the wind and the rain, consequently its texture was clear and firm, its glow most natural and beautiful. Monica thought not at all about her looks, nor believed that she had any charm. Indeed, her mother had so often by words, and in other ways, expressed her chastened disapproval of Monica altogether that the girl had shrunk into herself. She had been a leggy seventeen-year-old creature when her brother, the beloved Johnnie, had gone abroad, for some unexplained reason, turning his back on Scotland and the good living apparently lying to his hand. Now he was coming back after four long years, and Monica could not hold herself. She did not wish to be present at the first meeting between John and their mother, and she hoped somehow that she would meet him out of doors. She was not disappointed. As she waited close to a gate which gave upon a newly-planted section of the hill she heard the brushwood crackling and flew to meet him; then somehow it was as if she drooped slightly and stood back. What if the beloved Johnnie should be changed, alienated by dividing seas and the interests that had claimed him there? But when she saw his dear face all her misgivings vanished, and she ran, yes ran, and was folded in arms so long and big and strong that they closed round her with the deep gesture of protection which that kind of man somehow gives by right.

"Oh Johnnie, my Johnnie!" she sobbed, and John Brodie's own eyes were wet as he laid his lips to his little sister's tossed and elf-like locks.

"My wee wifie, there, there! then never mind; it's all right."

"Is it all right, Johnnie? Last night in my bed I was afraid, and this morning I just knew that if I had had to wait another day I'd have gone mad or died or run away."

"So bad as that, wee wifie?" he said then took her chin in his hand and turned her face to him and looked down into it with eyes sharpened by love. "Thank God you're not changed," he said in a voice of deep satisfaction.

"Oh, but I've grown up, Johnnie, and gotten into long frocks, but mother says it's a poor growing up; that I have no presence, and oh, Johnnie, I've been needing you just—just desperately!"

"I won't let you go again, my dear."

Smart Doings of Animals

Dog Understands Four Languages

When Cushman K. Davis was United States Senator from Minnesota, his brilliant wife had a Russian terrier, called Bebee, which became very well known to members of Washington society.

Bebe was cared for with as much attention as if she had been a child. She was a much-traveled dog, having accompanied her mistress on more than one European visit.

And Bebee was highly accomplished. She obeyed the commands of Mrs. Davis spoken in four different languages and that without hesitation.

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The shooting stars kept shooting 'round. Then Scouty cried, "Where are we bound? It seems we're almost standing still. I'm getting tired of this. If there are strange things in the sky, I hope we see them by and by. But, let's get started up again. There's nothing here to miss."

The Goofygoo looked down and said, "I'm trying hard to move ahead, but with the stars all flashing I'm afraid that we'll be struck. Of course I'm not just standing still, but flying very slow until I know we're safe. I never like to monkey with bad luck."

Then one wee star the Tinies knew came up and said, "What can I do? You all seem rather worried. Don't you like the stars' queer fight? If not, I'll chase them all away, although they're doing it in play. When once they learn to shoot they like to shoot with all their might."

"That's fine," snapped Carpy, "but we feel that no more fighting will appeal. We've seen enough of it, I'm sure." The wee star said, "All right!" And then he shouted to each star, "Stop fighting, now, right where you are." The flock of stars obeyed him, and then disappeared from sight.

Soon Coppy shouted, "Look! I see a light as bright as it can be. It's overhead. Let's go up there and find out what it is." And so the Goofygoo swung high and made the Tinymites all sigh. It fairly took their breath away when he began to whiz.

The bird then pulled a big surprise, which opened up the Tinies' eyes. He said, "That is the moon up there. I'll reach it pretty soon." And then he took one sudden lurch. My, what a funny place to perch. The Tinies' cabin rested on the great big smiling moon.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and His Sneeze

Copyright, 1929, By McClure Newspaper Syndicate

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Sometimes Uncle Wiggily wore glasses. This was when he thought he would have trouble finding adventures. Other times the old gentleman rabbit did not wear glasses over his pink, twinkling nose. This was on bright, sunny days when he could see well with his own eyes. At such times Mr. Longears left his glasses home on the mantel shelf to watch the clock tick.

It happened early in the morning, when the sun was warm and bright, that Uncle Wiggily thought he would hop out and look for an adventure. But as adventures had been very scarce of late he put on his glasses.

"For," he said to himself, "even though the sun is bright, I shall need my glasses to find an adventure. I don't know why it is, but my adventures seem to be getting smaller and smaller. Soon I shall need stronger glasses to see them."

However, Uncle Wiggily wasn't unhappy. He sang and whistled as he hopped along and pretty soon he met Dickie and Nellie Chip Chip, the sparrow children. Nellie was crying.

"Oh, thank you, Uncle Wiggily!" chirped Nellie.

"Oh, my dear, what's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"She lost her penny that she was going to buy an oatmeal lollypop with," sang Dickie.

"I didn't lose it—you lost it!" said Nellie, and she cried more tears. "You lost my penny, Dickie Chip Chip, and you know it," said the girl bird.

"How did it happen?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Mother gave us each a penny this morning when we started for school," explained Dickie, "and she said we could buy lollipops."

"And I let Dickie carry my penny with his, under his wing," said Nellie, "and just now he looked and there was only one penny under his wing, instead of two, and he said it was my penny that was lost."

"So it was!" chirped Dickie. "I'm awful sorry, but it was Nellie's penny that I dropped and lost."

"How can you tell it was Nellie's penny when all pennies look so much alike?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"'Cause I know—I'm sure it was Nellie's penny," said the boy bird. "But she needn't worry. I'll give her some of my lollypop."

"You won't need to do that," spoke Uncle Wiggily, his eyes twinkling behind his glasses. "I have an extra penny and I'll give that to Nellie for the one you lost, Dickie."

"Oh, thank you, Uncle Wiggily!" chirped Nellie, and she was very happy and so was her brother, for he liked lollypops very much.

So when Uncle Wiggily had given Nellie a new penny both sparrow children were happy and they were going to fly on to school when Nellie whispered to her brother:

"Uncle Wiggily did us a big favor. Don't you think we ought to do one for him?"

"Sure!" said Dickie. "But what can we do?"

"Maybe his shoe lace is untied, or something like that," sang Nellie softly, "and we could tie it for him."

But when they looked, both of Uncle Wiggily's shoe laces were tied so they could not do that favor. And they were wondering what they could do when, all of a sudden, Uncle Wiggily sneezed. It was a large, loud sneeze, for the sun tickled his eyes.

And, as he sneezed, his glasses flew off his pink nose and bounced up over a high fence near where he had met the sparrow children. It was a tight fence, so Uncle Wiggily could not crawl or burrow under it to get into the field where his glasses had bounced. And it was such a high fence he could not jump over. And it was such a strong fence that he could not gnaw a hole through it.

"Oh, dear! How am I ever going to get my glasses to look for an adventure?" sighed the old rabbit gentleman.

"Now we have a chance to do Uncle Wiggily a favor," chirped Nellie.

"How?" asked her brother.

"We can fly over the high fence," went on Nellie, "and we can pick up Uncle Wiggily's glasses in our beaks and fly back with them to him. Come on. We'll have time before the last bell rings."

Over the fence flew the sparrow children. They saw the glasses, picked them up together in their beaks and flew back with them.

"Oh, how kind of you!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Now I can see to look for an adventure." So he hopped along, Dickie and Nellie went to school with pennies to buy oatmeal lollypops, and everybody was happy. And if the bread and milk doesn't turn the bowl upside down to spill the spoon, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's puddle jumper.

"What is yours?"

"The saving of young men," said he lugubriously.

"Oh, do save a nice one for me!" said she.

Three persons were killed and six seriously injured in these various crashes. Three others were slightly hurt.

Fines in police court in March totaled $786 and costs amounted to $45. There were 224 cases before the court resulting in 177 convictions.

POST OFFICE IS DEBATE TOPIC

Veniot Tells Commons That Veteran Without Legs Unsuited For Ontario Post

Ottawa, April 18 — The House of Commons this afternoon will deal in committee with estimates.

The House last night discussed the appointment of a postmaster at Simcoe, Ontario. A Conservative amendment to a motion to go into supply asked the House to declare that Hon. P. J. Veniot, Postmaster-General, had disregarded the letter and spirit of the Civil Service Act in connection with the appointment of C. R. Bowyer, the man given the Simcoe appointment. Mr. Bowyer is a returned soldier, but without disability, while Mr. Whittaker, the other applicant, lost both legs on active service.

UNABLE TO DO WORK

The Postmaster-General agreed both Mr. Whittaker and Mr. Bowyer deserved equal consideration on the ground of overseas service. Mr. Whittaker, however, said the Minister, had suffered the loss of both legs, which unfitted him to discharge the duties of a post-office such as Simcoe.

The attitude which he held where returned soldiers were concerned, declared Mr. Veniot, seemed to have been misconstrued.

"No man has so high a regard for returned soldiers as I have," he declared, adding he had sons of his own who fought in France during the war.

In answer to Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative, Vancouver Centre, Mr. Veniot said the Deputy Postmaster-General had sometimes exercised the power of rejection in the Civil Service Act, "which he had a right to do."

There were instances, the Postmaster-General continued, where the Civil Service Commission had appointed non-disability returned soldiers when disability men were applicants. The department had not seen fit to accept the findings of the commission in some of these cases.

CONSERVATIVE RECORD

The record of the Conservative administration should be examined in respect of its treatment of postmasters, continued Mr. Veniot. In the province of Quebec alone there had been so many dismissals after the Conservatives assumed office in 1911 that the postal superintendent there had been obliged to write to Ottawa asking for more help to replace those who had been dismissed. There had been 1,890 in eighteen months.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative Leader, shared in the debate.

This afternoon and to-morrow the House will go into supply without the question being put, so there can be no further decision of the amendment on either of these days. The debate may, however, be revived on Monday under the rules.

RELIEF FROM GAS STOMACH PAINS DIZZINESS

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles, you can't be well if your digestion is bad, you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as relief from digestive troubles, even those of years standing.

Mrs. George Bell, of 82 King St., London, Ont., writes as follows:

"I had suffered for years with stomach trouble, gas would form and bloat me up so I could hardly catch my breath. My nerves were shattered; I did not sleep, became weak and rundown, and spent enough on medicines to furnish a home.

"Two months after starting Tanlac, however, I had gained eleven pounds and was entirely free of indigestion. Now I have no gas or pains in my stomach. The headaches have disappeared. My nerves are calm. I sleep like a child; am always ready for my meals, and my housework seems like play to me."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation, sour stomach, if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all rundown, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

School Children Receive Good Musical Training

Adjudicator at Musical Festival Praises Standard of Public School Choir Singing; Victoria West School Winner of School Trustees Challenge Shield; Portland Girls Gain High Award for Pianoforte Duet.

Children of Victoria are receiving a good musical education and should produce some really fine material for choirs and other musical bodies, Adjudicator P. L. Newcombe declared when adjudicating in the public school choir competition at the Musical Festival yesterday afternoon.

"The singing of these choirs gave me real pleasure," he said. "I have heard more real singing this afternoon than last night when the adults were competing. Keep this sort of thing up when you get to High School, where the curriculum gets crowded with a lot of things which may not do you so much good. In the home, remember, there is nothing to take the place of music."

Victoria West Public School was the winner of the Victoria School Trustees' Challenge Shield for intermediate grades.

HIGHEST MARKS

Performances worthy of note were produced at the afternoon session in the pianoforte duet for under sixteen years. This competition was won by Nellie and Pattie Greenwood of Portland, Oregon, who secured the highest marks awarded in the festival up to this time, 196.

First United Church, usually a big winner in the festival, captured two more honors, winning the quartette and ladies' trio.

The results of the afternoon session were:

City Temple Hall—Prof. Warren D. Allen adjudicating.

Class 40, pianoforte, junior, under 13 years; thirty-eight entrants; competing for silver medal given by Frederick Waddington—1, Marion Patton, 194 marks; 2, Nellie Greenwood, 183 marks; 3, Phillip J. B. Oliver and Phyllis M. Hatfield tied with 177 marks each.

Test pieces: (a) "From Dwarf Land" (McDowell), (b) "Le Coucon" (Daquin).

Class 68, elocution, senior, girls under 19 years; competing for silver medal given by Alderman H. O. Lichfield—1, Isabel Thompson, 170 marks; 2, Bettie Brinkley and Geraldine Rutherford-Shaw tied with 166 marks each; 3, Dorothy M. A. Cox, 164 marks.

Test pieces: (a) "Zuleika" (A. O'Shaughnessy), (b) "Laugh and Be Merry" (John Masefield).

Class 45, pianoforte duet, under 16 years, competing for silver medals given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Radbourne—1, Nellie Greenwood and Pattie Greenwood of Portland, 196 marks; 2, Kathleen Baker and Allan Baker, 160 marks; 3, Mary P. Leith and Brian Burdon-Murphy, 133 marks.

Test piece: "Hungarian Dances" Nos. 3 and 6 (Brahms).

Metropolitan Church—P. L. Newcombe adjudicating.

Class 2, public schools, intermediate grades, 3, 4 and 5; thirty-six to fifty voices; boys and girls, or mixed; competing for the Victoria School Trustees' Challenge Shield—1, Victoria West Public School (Miss E. Parfitt), 187 marks; 2, Tolmie Public School (Miss I. Tait), 183 marks; 3, Cloverdale Public School (P. C. Routley), 177 marks.

First Baptist Church—Adjudicating by Daniel Protheroe.

Class 26, ladies' trio, soprano, mezzo-soprano and alto; competing for silver medals given by the Schubert Club—1, First United Church Trio, Miss M. Watson, Mrs. A. Millhouse and Miss B. Simpson, 84 marks.

Test piece: "As Torrents in Summer" (Elgar).

Class 33, vocal solo, tenor—William Draper and C. Blogg went into the finals at the evening session.

FINE ELOCUTION

Adjudicator Mrs. Stanley D. Skene in her remarks on the elocution classes, said "the quality of the work done was exceptionally good, and instead of one award there should at least be fifteen. I feel very pleased with the work so far. I think the pupils and teachers are to be congratulated on their work."

Mrs. Skene suggested smaller classes at future festivals.

In Class 66, elocution, competing for silver medal given by William Allan, Frances Oldham was first, with Pauline Harvard and Lorna Coton tied for second place.

Fine Display of Spring Flowers Is Promised

The Spring flower show, which will be held at the Willows, April 26 and 27, under the direction of the Vancouver Island Horticultural Society, is likely to prove to be the finest exhibition of Spring flowers ever seen on the Island.

Mr. Leighton, the secretary of the society, says that the entries are coming in very fast, and in addition a very large number of non-competitive displays by nurserymen and florists is assured.

Many of the firms that deal in garden sundries will be represented with attractive exhibits, so that the garden lover may see, under one roof, not only the flowers but the various means of raising them.

Arrangements have been made with the street car company, so that the admission ticket, which costs only twenty-five cents, will entitle the holder to transportation to and from the Willows, from any part of the city.

Bicyclists Must Watch Arterials

"I cannot stand by and see some careless youths killed just because they will not abide by the by-law governing arterial highways. If persons on bicycles will not stop at the arterials we will have to summons them," declared Commissioner W. E. Staneland at the meeting of the police commission yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Staneland drew attention to the fact that most bicycle users in the city were not conforming to the arterial regulation, and in any case, where such a person was struck by a car when entering a highway, he would have absolutely no claim against the motorist.

"We had to apprehend over 200 motorists to show that the regulation would be properly enforced," he said. "I believe motorists approve of the system and we will have to summons the bicyclists too if they will not abide by the rule."

OPERETTA HAS MUSICAL GEMS

"Ho!", the Riding Song, Is One of Chief Hits of "Desert Song"

Lillian Albertson's production of "The Desert Song," the operetta that broke all records during its twenty weeks' engagement in San Francisco and its thirty-six weeks in Los Angeles, will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre, commencing next Monday, and running for three days, with a matinee on Wednesday.

The pageantry of this operetta is georgeous, the music alluring and melodious, while the book is a thriller which would be entertaining even without the splendor of Romberg's sparkling score.

There are half a dozen popular numbers in the score which already have gained greater vogue than was enjoyed by this composer's earlier triumphs, "The Student Prince" and "Blossom Time."

Chief among the musical gems is "Ho!" the riding song of the Riffs, a stirring number that sets the blood tingling and starts off the operetta at a lively pace which is never diminished. Then there is the haunting "One Alone," which falls to Perry Askam, the baritone. Tanzi, the eighteen-year-old prima donna, has "The Sabre Song," in which the big voice of the tiny soprano is displayed to excellent advantage. She also has "Romance," that again shows off her beautiful voice and her fine musicianship, for she accompanies herself on the harp; and the theme number entitled "The Desert Song," as rendered by Askam and Tanzi, is another great favorite.

David Reese, the tenor, has a sure-fire hit in "One Flower in Your Garden," and even the comedian, Charles Boyle, has not been slighted by Romberg, as he has two song hits in "One Good Man Gone Wrong" and "It." Myrtis Crinley contributes more than her share in the rendition of this latter number.

A male chorus of thirty grand opera voices, backed by as many beautiful girls, who not only dance well but sing divinely, with the entire score being played by Cecil Stewart's symphony orchestra, are all additional unusual features of "The Desert Song."

House Peters Is Moving From Beverly Hills

Los Angeles, April 18.—House Peters, screen actor, under $1,000 bond to keep peace with his neighbors, announced to-day he was selling his Beverly Hills home and would take Mrs. Peters away for a rest.

W. H. Simons and Major William Korst, neighbors, charged the Peters' radio played too loudly near open windows and that Peters had placed a washtub of tin cans near his garage, rattling them with a rope. Peters replied that the cans were to frighten birds from his fruit trees and that the neighbors' radios and player pianos had made his wife a "nervous wreck."

SAW REHEARSALS OF REAL CHORUS TO PORTRAY ROLE
